

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printery, Torrey Bldg. Brenton. High class tailoring. Phoenix Block.

"Parlor Theatre" a new show tonight. Tibbets, undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St. "Parlor Theatre" fine program this evening.

The action for a divorce brought by Mary Gustafson against her husband Adolph Gustafson, has been dismissed without prejudice to either party by stipulation. Mrs. Gustafson began the suit several weeks ago and charged her husband with cruelty and neglect.

Ernest Gerhard, a young man about 20 years of age who is known in police and sporting circles as the "Yukon Kid," was tried in police court yesterday on a charge of vagrancy and convicted. He was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail but upon a promise to reform and go to work he was paroled for a year.

Julius Hagen was arrested on complaint of J. Sosnovsky yesterday charged with the theft of two pairs of trousers from the former's store at 2 1/2 West Superior street. Hagen will be tried on the charge today.

"Parlor Theatre" three hours of solid Latest spring blocks and styles at Kelly's hat hospital.

For an A1 tonic; drink Weiss beer.

Dance at Lester Park tomorrow night. WANTED—Will pay 60 cents per share for Metropolitan Gold & Silver Mining stock. B. 12 News Tribune.

Quick service. Phone Peachev & Lounsberry, printers. Providence Bldg. enjoyment.

Little Jake the popular saloon keeper has re-opened at 527 West Michigan street.

The brick paving at the corner of Lake avenue and Superior street will be torn up shortly to prepare for the laying of a new curved track by the street car company. At the time the paving was laid, the company was unable to get the quality of track it wanted, so put in a temporary one. One of a finer grade of steel will be put in.

Dennis Laughren died at the home of his brother, Thomas Loughrey, 206 1/2 West Second street yesterday of consumption. Mr. Loughrey was 41 years of age and was an engineer by trade. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Fred King, an employe, was injured at the lime kiln in the West End yesterday by a falling derrick. A couple of ribs were broken and he was somewhat bruised, but his injuries are not considered serious.

The death of Mary S. Rogers, of paralysis, occurred yesterday at the home of her son, Charles S. Rogers, 314 East Fifth street. Mrs. Rogers was 64 years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from her son's home and interment will be made in the cemetery at South Superior.

The pupils of St. James' orphans' home will give a musical and literary program tomorrow evening at St. Clement's hall at 8 o'clock. A fine program has been prepared and among those to take part are Miss Esther Tuft, Ervy Cook, Edward Malone, Joseph Moore, Katherine Morgan, Virginia Gravel, Misses Rose Hart, Florence Riley, Florence Daley, Anna Sears, Gertrude Maginnis and Rose Hart.

Celle Schambo, a young switchman on the Northern Pacific, was arrested last night on a serious charge. Grace Ridgeville, who is but 15 years old, is involved in the case and she also was arrested on complaint of her parents, who charge her with being incorrigible. They think a term at the state training school will prove beneficial. Both spent the night in jail.

Mrs. S. Van, a rather good looking young woman with some education, who has allowed herself to become addicted to intoxicants, was arrested last night with a bolsterous jag and locked up.

George Bayha, living on First street, near Fifth avenue East, reported to the police shortly after supper that someone had stolen about a gallon of ice cream from his back porch. There was no clue but the police suspect that it was taken by a gang of boys.

A girl was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Haugenstein, 321 East Third street.

Archie McDonough, the 15-year-old boy who rented a horse and buggy from Nichols & Thomas' Sunday afternoon and forgot to return it, was brought in from Knife river yesterday, where he had attempted to dispose of the rig in a lumber camp for $5. He was arraigned in court but pleaded not guilty to the charge of larceny and his examination was set for this afternoon. The young man confessed to the police that he had run away from his home in St. Paul because he didn't like his grandfather.