IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY HELD AT FAMILY RESIDENCE.

Took Prominent Part in Laying Corner Stone of Adas Chevra Synagogue.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Amelia Cook took place yesterday morning at the family residence, 112 First avenue East. It was attended by a large number of friends who, during the twelve years in which she had resided here, had learned to love and admire her many noble qualities. Floral tributes were in profusion and fairly buried the casket which held the remains of the loved one. The ceremony, which was performed by the rabbi of the Adas Chevra congregation was simple yet most impressive and at its close the sorrowing friends journeyed to the cemetery where interment took place.

Mrs. Cook had reached the advanced age of 81 years and up to within a few weeks had enjoyed good health. Of late however, she complained of feeling weak and noticed that her usual vigor was on the wane but even then it was not thought that her condition was such as to occasion alarm on the part of her family and friends. The decline continued, however, she dropped to sleep and in this condition passed peacefully away.

It will be remembered that when the corner stone of the synagogue of the Adas Chevra congregation was laid a few months ago Mrs. Cook was the honored one at the ceremony. There was present on that occasion, I. Abrahamson, her son; W. M. Abrahamson, her grand son; Ned Abrahamson, her great-grand-son, four generations thus being represented.

Several children survive Mrs. Cook aside from I. Abrahamson. They are Mrs. A. Mark, of Brainerd, Mrs. H. Cohen, of Millaca; Mrs. H. Simon, of Detroit, Michigan.
