

BUHL.

News Tribune Correspondence:

BUHL, Aug. 22.—E. B. Hawkins and Burt Rowe, were here on Monday on business connected with the Drake & Stratton Company.

Fred Rossom, of Virginia, was a visitor on Wednesday.

James Beason, foreman of Allen Black company, contractors of the waterworks system, left for his home in St. Paul yesterday.

Mose Mark and Sol Rubloff, of Virginia, were here Wednesday calling on their friends.

Jos Twaddle, of Duluth, struck town this week on business.

C. A. Kitz arrived here from Milwaukee and has accepted a position with Wm. Kitz & Co.

Quite a number of the villagers were out this week gathering raspberries, of which there is an abundant supply in this vicinity.