

FORMER DULUTH MAN WEDS.

Morris Helperin, Now of Chicago, To Be Married Next Wednesday.

A pretty wedding will take place at the Douglas Club house in Chicago next Wednesday that will be of interest to a good many Duluth people, seeing that the groom, Mr. Morris Helperin, was formerly a resident of this city. Mr. Helperin, while in Duluth, was probably one of the city's best known young men, and, although he has been absent for a number of years, is well remembered here among his many friends. He is now a prosperous young business man of Chicago, being engaged in the tailoring business for himself.

The bride-to-be is Miss Amy Cohen, of Chicago. Miss Cohen is reputed to be very beautiful, and is one of the belles of Jewish society on the South Side. She is one of the leaders of her set, and comes of a family that stands high in Chicago's social and business circles. The wedding promises to be one of the events of the season in Jewish society, and many guests from near and far will be in attendance, owing to the high standing of the principals.
