

SOCIETY IS FLOURISHING.

Freimuth Benefit Association is Financially Solid.

The annual meeting of the Freimuth Benefit association was held yesterday, and the reports submitted by the various officers show a flourishing condition of affairs.

According to the treasurer's books, $100 was paid out during the past year in sick benefits, while a balance of more than that amount is left in the treasury.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, F. P. Robinson; vice president, Frank Fleischman; treasurer, Miss M. Paison; secretary, H. S. Carroll; collector, E. Sattler. The board of trustees is composed of H. Haney, J. White, Joe Medley, J. Johnson, J. Rockwell and D. Loewus.