

COL. PRATHER DEAD.

Former Democratic National Committeeman From Missouri Dies at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 27.—Col. John G. Prather, jury commissioner of St. Louis, aged sixty-nine, died tonight at his home, from pneumonia.

In past years he was a well-known river man.

His title was received during service in the Union army.

Col. Prather was twice made a Democratic national committeeman from Missouri.

Hannah Krojanker Dead

Hannah, the 15-year-old daughter of R. Krojanker, the well known furrier, died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. As a pupil of the city schools she had made marked progress and was an especial favorite with her teacher and associates alike because of her gentle and kindly characteristics. The funeral will be held at the family residence, 1221 East Superior street, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will take place at Woodland.

Temperance Worker Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Rev. Dr. Jeremiah R. Brittain is dead at his residence in Newark, N. J., at the age of sixty-four.

He was formerly superintendent of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League, and later superintendent of the New Jersey and Delaware Anti-Saloon League.