

PRETTY WEDDING AT THE SPALDING

Jeanette Glassner of Biwabik and J. H. Silber of Hibbing Are Married.

Miss Jeanette Glassner, a popular Biwabik girl, and Julius H. Silber, a business man of Hibbing, were married in one of the main parlors of the Spalding hotel last evening by Rev. Dr. Rypan of St. Paul.

Myer Glassner of Biwabik gave the bride away. Miss Silber of Milwaukee, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Misses Edith Karon of Superior and Clara Shapiro of Eveleth were bridesmaids. Little Mandetta Casimer of Duluth was ring bearer and Lewis Glassner, a brother of the bride, was best man. A concealed orchestra played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chene over white taffeta and carried bride's roses. Her travelling suit was gray with sable furs and a picture hat.

The wedding ceremony, which occurred at 8 o'clock, was followed by a dinner in one of the private dining rooms. The room was decorated in green and white and there was a profusion of smilax, carnations, ferns and potted plants.

Many Duluth friends of the couple were present and there were several from other cities and towns. Among the outsiders were Miss Silber of Milwaukee, Samuel Sprisberger of Chicago, Miss Clara Shapiro of Eveleth, Misses Edith and Helen Karon of Superior, Miss Nellie Jacoby of La Crosse, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Glassner of Ironwood, Mich.; Miss Glassner of Cleveland, Samuel Silber of Milwaukee and Sol Simon of Chicago.

Lewis M. Glassner acted as toastmaster at the dinner and responses to toasts were made by Sol Simon, Samuel Sprisberger, Samuel Silber and John Mullen, the last mentioned of Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Silber left on a late train for the East.
