

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printers Torrey Bldg.
"Parlor theater"—Vaudeville's latest novelties.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Frank Kolm and Bessie Slonim, and Anders Mobrotten and Anna Toner.

Second Citizenship papers were issued yesterday in the district court to Andrew Erickson, a former subject of the king of Norway and Sweden; first papers were issued to John Peters, a former subject of the emperor of Austria.

The Spruce Mining company has purchased of Jessie L. Savin, of Stillwater, timber standing on lands in section 13, 14, and 23-60-13, for $4,200, the transfer having been recorded with the register of deeds yesterday afternoon. Alfred W. Kuehnow and wife have deeded to Martin L. House for a consideration of $4,700 all of section 19-31-17, containing about 650 acres.

Two more property owners on East Superior street are dissatisfied with the assessment made by the board of public works to pay the cost of paving the thoroughfare from Eighth to Sixteenth avenues east, and have filed appeals in the district court. They are Percival M. Shaw owner of lot 8, block 10, Banning & Ray's subdivision of Endlon, and M. H. Stanford, who owns lots 12 and 13, block 79, Endlon division, and their objection are the same as those of the property owners filed several days ago.

"Parlor theater"—Dandy program tonight.

Judge Cant yesterday morning filed an order in the district court denying the motion of the defendants for a new trial in the case of the Buffalo Land & Exploration company against Hugh P. Strong and others. The action involved some iron ore lands and judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff at the January term of court. The defendants argued that the verdict was not justified by the evidence and was contrary to law.

Duluth lodge No. 369, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen gave their fifth annual ball at the Armory last evening 600 couples being in attendance. The dancers had a jolly time and Friday was well advanced before they all dispersed.

In the case of Robert M. Stitt against the Rat Portage Lumber company a stay of proceedings has been ordered by Judge Ensign. The case involved some timber and the plaintiff secured a verdict at the completion of the trial.

The fire department was called yesterday morning to the home of John Runquist, 518 1/2 East First street, where there was a small blaze in the roof. The fire was extinguished before any great damage resulted.

The funeral of Mrs. Patrick Hughes, who died Wednesday at her home, 114 Nineteenth avenue east, will take place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from St. Clement's Catholic church. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

County Attorney McClintock has received a letter from the state board of Pardons asking for information regarding Oscar L. Cook, alias Herbert Richey, who, it is claimed in the communication was sentenced from St. Louis county in 1900 to serve a seven-year sentence for forgery. The records disclose no such case.

The local corps of the Salvation army will be visited this evening by Staff Captain Faulkner, of Minneapolis. A special meeting will be held in the Branch Bethel at 8 o'clock.

Mayor Hugo has designated tomorrow as a general cleaning up day, when citizens are requested to remove from their premises all rubbish, dirt or filth.

Estimates on tar macadam, both according to the Warren Brothers' patent and on tar macadam which Mr. Patton believes will not infringe on their patents, will be submitted to the common council next Monday night by the city engineer. These figures will show that the city can manufacture and lay tar macadam much cheaper than to award contracts.

Arthur W. Leahy, the former Duluthian, of New York who was lately reported to be dangerously sick with diphtheria, is improving and his recovery seems assured, according to reports received by Duluth friends yesterday. Mr. Leahy was connected with the old Security bank. He was a member of the Arion quartet of this city.

Call up Duluth Van & Storage company for package delivery; only 15c. Telephone, old, 492. Zenith, 767.

The annual meeting of the Duluth Curling club will be held next Tuesday evening at the Board of Trade building.

"Parlor theater"—Sure, I'm going tonight.

Felix Sierpulowski, an insane man, was brought down from Virginia yesterday and examined before Probate Judge Middlecott, who ordered him committed to the asylum, at Ferrus Falls. Sierpulowski's hallucination seems to be that he has taken a contract to build a house 10,000 feet square.

The Young Women's Christian association will move into its new quarters on the second floor of the building at the corner of First avenue west and Superior street next week.

The Woman's Council of Duluth has extended an invitation to the Duluth Commercial club to attend the lecture to be given at the Central high school next Monday evening by Mrs. Conde Hamlin, of St. Paul. The lecture will be on civic improvement and will be illustrated with stereopticon views showing improved and unimproved places in Duluth and other cities.