

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land Printer Torrey Bldg.
"Parlor Theater" The Mysterious
Caesar.

Frank Bodin and Michael Morrison, the two striking freight handlers arrested Wednesday night, waived examination in the municipal court yesterday and were bound over to the grand jury. Bail was fixed at $250, the same as for the other freight handlers. The men are now locked up in the county jail.

"Parlor Theater," great novelty bill tonight.

Good for an appetizer: Weiss Beer. Fifty thousand pansies at Seekins' greenhouses. Leave orders at the Glass Block.

"Parlor Theater," immense vaudeville program.

An answer has been filed with the clerk of the United States circuit court in the case of Alexander P. Turner against M. J. Reilly. The answer is a general denial.

Frank Keturi and Joel Pelto both natives of Finland, have declared their intention of becoming citizens in the United States district court.

Henry J. Jenswold yesterday began suit in the district court against Oliver A. Gilbert and others to quiet title to an undivided two-thirds of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 13-59-20.

The Duluth & Iron Range Railroad company yesterday filed in the district court an answer to the personal injury suit begun by Charles Schiller, administrator of the estate of Edward Nolan, deceased. The company claims that Noaln met his death through his own carelessness while employed by the company.

Second citizenship papers were issued in the district court yesterday to Erik J. Erikson and Hans Amundson, and first papers were issued to Peter Lind. All are former subjects of the king of Norway and Sweden.

Dr. James A. Smealle, of 1230 East First street, who has been very sick with pneumonia, is now steadily improving and is considered out of danger.

Eschol Goldforb, 1521 West Michigan street, was arrested last night on a charge of assault preferred by Roman Dorfman. In discussing some personal matter on Michigan street between Fifteenth and Sixteenth avenues west Wednesday night the two men became angry and Goldforb, it is said, sought to clinch his arguments by means of his fist. Dorfman, as a result, was considerably bruised about the head. Goldforb furnished $15 bail and his case will come up in the municipal court today.

The woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. William H. Jones, 209 Third avenue west. Business concerning the annual meeting will be discussed.

Officials of the Railway Trainmen and Railway Conductors are expected to arrive in Duluth today for the purpose of taking a vote of employes of the Great Northern road on the question of demanding double pay for double heading trains. The result of the vote will be forwarded to General Manager Ward at St. Paul Sunday evening. As previously stated in these columns it will require a majority of votes to authorize a strike.