

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! May all our readers have many happy returns of the day.

Chief Joe. Shab-ash-kung and his headman, Ain-deense, of the Gull Lake Settlement, were agency visitors on Tuesday.

Chief Wah-we-yea-cumig, who has been absent on a visit, at Bena, returned today with his wife.

Peter Navarre, a Pottawatomie Indian, has assumed charge of the White Earth Chippewa Herald.

Robert Henry, who has been employed at Pine Point for a year or more, has returned to his home here.

Pat. Perrault and his brother, Antoine, of the Pembina Settlement, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perrault.

Wilhelm Michelet, an attorney of Thief River Falls, and Miss Michelet of Minneapolis, brother and sister of Agent Michelet, made the latter a short visit, and returned to their respective homes yesterday.

DENTISTRY—For first class dentistry, call on Dr. R. H. Phalon. Teeth extracted without pain. Crown and Bridge work a specialty. Office over First State Bank, Detroit, Minn.

Mr. Martin, who is connected with the Detroit Record, was an Agency visitor during the week. He came here to get a record of the allotments which have been made on this reservation within Becker County, for the purpose of using it in a map which the Record is going to publish of the county.

Notice.

A council will be held at the White Earth Hall, on Tuesday January 12th, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of sending a delegation to Washington to urge certain legislation effecting the interests of the Chippewas of this reservation.

Entertainment.

There will be a moving picture entertainment at the White Earth Hall, on Tuesday evening January 5th. A new lot of moving picture films have recently been purchased to replace those that were recently destroyed by fire. There will also be some late popular songs rendered by an Edison phonograph. Admission will be twenty five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children.

Sale of Inherited Lands.

Members of this reservation are beginning to receive the returns from the sale of their inherited lands. During the past week the several sums noted as the result of the sale of these inherited land was paid over to the heirs by Agent Michelet. William Hanks, $2,576.00; Quay-ke-geshig, $853. Henry H. Beaulieu, $2,560.00; Frank Wade, $650. This money is being employed to a good purpose, buying team, cat's, clothing and provisions. Some of it has been placed in banks on time deposits.

RESOLUTIONS FOR 1904.

That we will love those who love us and not turn the other cheek to those who hate us.

That we will agree to act as Michelet's second if he and Fullerton should meet in the ring during the year.

That we will settle down if Ben Fairbanks will do likewise.

That if Charley Mee stops smoking cigarettes we will stop eating candy.

That we will agree to vote for Doctor Smith as Archbishop of the Owls.

That we will agree to eat one meal a week at the Hotel Leecy if Leecy will give us partridges every time we eat there.

That we will agree to listen all through to Theodore's 14th of June speeches if he will repair the road between here and his cottage at White Earth Lake.

That we will never permit Robert Morrison to mix a fancy drink for us.

That we will agree to loan our team one day each week to those who are helping themselves to our wood pile if they will go after their own wood and leave ours alone.

That we will build a yard around our premises to keep from walking over VanMetre's cow every night during warm weather, and which sleeps on our house porch.

That we will agree to continue buying beef from Mike LaChapelle if he will not sell us as much bone as he has been selling us during the past year at twenty cents per pound.

That we will agree to buy Joseph Perrault a box of cigars that will cost $185 per thousand if he will not let Prof. Lipps, fool him with any more one centers.

That we will agree to patronize Peter Martin's stage line if he will put canvass tops on his stages and stoves inside.

That we will agree to find a man at Cass Lake with a bigger nose than Louis Brisbois, landlord of the Headquarters Hotel.

That we will continue our criticisms of the Morris Act until its iniquities are thoroughly shown up and amended by congress.

We will agree to arise at six o'clock every morning, excepting Sundays, Washington's birthday, June 14th, July 4th, and Thanksgiving day, for the year 1904, if A. A. Ledebor will quit smoking for the same period.

We will agree to keep regular hours and be at home at 10 o'clock every evening if Capt. Joe Louzon will agree to avoid prevaricating, especially in the matter of shooting game, for the coming year.

We will agree to refrain from free silver arguments until July 1st, 1904, if John Lynch will confine his persuasive arguments to the metre of M. S. Converse whippers.

That we will agree to steal no more of Major Michelet's cow bells if he will agree to keep his cows away from our bedroom windows at night.

That if Bud Warren will stop saying, "I will meet you later," we will not give him away.

To furnish Dave McArthur and Charley Thompson with all the wild peppermint they will drink if they will confine themselves to it.
