The application of nine taxpayers to the county attorney for an appeal from the allowance by the board of county commissioners to John Armstrong, overseer of roads, of $125 will come before one of the judges of the district court this morning. The taxpayers claim that the commissioners have no right under the law to appoint a superintendent of roads and the case is brought for the purpose of testing the authority of the board.

A banquet and formal farewell was extended to Frank H. Pride, buyer for a number of years in the hardware and crocker department at Pantan & White's, at the Spalding last evening, by the heads of the departments of the big store with which he has been identified. Mr. Pride will leave today for Seattle to engage in business for himself. A very fine menu was prepared for the banquet last evening, and Mr. Pride was given a parting that must have gratified him much.
