

SUPERIOR PERSONALS.

A. J. Overby, of Rice Lake, Wis., is in Superior on business.

Dr. Andrews, accompanied by his bride, reached home yesterday morning from their honeymoon, which was enjoyed in an extended trip through the East and Middle West. Dr. and Mrs. Andrews are at present guests at the Hotel Great Northern.

Munson Burton, of Mankato, Minn., is in Superior on business.

After a severe illness, Mrs. Elmer Hagadore, Baxter avenue, is convalescent.

L. H. Starky, of Eau Claire, reached Superior on a business trip yesterday. He is a guest at the Hotel Superior.

Traveling Passenger Agent O'Connell of the Milwaukee road is in the city.

George Giffin is home again, after a visit in Minneapolis.

E. L. Seyfrid, of the Grand Rapids Furniture company, is out again, after a brief illness.

Louis Albenberg, of Detroit, is in the city on a few weeks' visit to his brother, Max Albenberg, 1528 Hughitt avenue.

M. Albenberg will leave Sunday for New York city. He expects to be absent several weeks, and will purchase new goods for his store.