

CHARITY BALL IS A SUCCESS

Neat Sum Netted From Efforts of Temple Emanuel Society.

The charity ball given by the Progress club at the Spalding last night, was one of the prettiest of many social events of the winter.

The Ladies' Aid society of Temple Emanuel will receive the proceeds of the affair and it is assured that the society will have a neat sum with which to carry on its enterprises.

The ballroom looked almost like a symphony in black and white, as more than half the 300 dancers wore gowns of one color or the other.

At no dance this season has there been so many and such beautiful white gowns displayed.

A few of the many pretty dresses noted were worn by Mrs. Victor Cohen, heavy white lace; Mrs. E. Silberstein, pattern gown of tan applique and net; Mrs. Etta Josephs, white satin; Mrs. Page, cream and black; Mrs. Harrington, brown and blue; Mrs. Metter, tan voile, with lace medallions; Miss Shapiro, white; Mrs. Bondy, black lace and jet; Mrs. J. M. Gidding, white etamine with picture hat; Mrs. Josephine Sattler, white.

Among the guests were:

Messrs and Mesdames William Gomburg, L. S. Loeb, I. Freimuth, M. Levy, P. H. Levy, Robert Marcuse, B. Silberstein, L. S. Newman, Kastriner, Joseph Saddle, S. Levy, Page, J. Abrahamson, Edward Silberstein, M. Cook, Hirsch, S. Y. Josephs, D. Kohn, Victor Colin, J. A. Klein, S. Levine, J. M. Gidding, H. Harrington, Hirschfield, Q. Oreck; Mrs. Bondy, Misses Metter, Sturtezis, Rose Gidding, May Levy, Rose Krojanker, Elsie Silberstein, Irene Silberstein, Esther Levy, Stella Levy, Lily Abrahamson, Hannah Cook, Lottie Mondschine, E. Kaaron, R. Kaaron, Shapira of Eveleth, Mayor M. B. Cullum, Professor Ourat, Messrs. Antrobus, D. G. Loewus, Summerfield, Hany, Carol O. Boyle, Edward Helperin, M. W. Rosenberger and M. Freimuth.

The reception committee, to whom much of the success of the dance is due was composed of D. G. Loewus, L. S. Levy, M. Freimuth, S. Y. Josephs and M. W. Rosenberger.
