

SUPERIOR BREVITIES.

Nebagamon Eagles are planning for a masquerade ball at the village hall on the eve of Thanksgiving.

Owing to the rainy weather the Lake Nebagamon Lumber company have closed down the sawmill and the camps. It is expected the suspension of operations will only be temporary.

It would be better to stop some of this "Destiny" foolishness and provide a market at Superior for the products raised by Douglas county farmers.—Nebagamon Enterprise.

The trades and labor assembly will meet tonight.

The funeral of Mrs. Rose Schwanecamp was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's church. Interment at Calvary. St. Cecilia and Marquette Courts, W. C. O. F., and Waunita Degree of Pochontas of which Mrs. Schwanecamp was a member, was present.

The members of Clan Cameron will give a Hallowe'en entertainment at Agen hall tonight.

The marriage of Miss Josephine Connell and Patrick J. Daley will take place this morning at Sacred Heart church.

Esther Kaner and Benjamin Cohen, both well known Jewish young people of Superior, were married Sunday night in Maryland hall. The wedding was of a public character and was solemnized by Rabbi Tremblatt before a large audience composed of friends and relatives of the bridal couple. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and dancing was indulged in.

Albert Schwab, who with a companion was found eating jam in the basement of Wentlund's grocery store, was late yesterday sentenced to a term in the industrial school at Waukesha by Judge Hally in municipal court. The boy is 14 years of age and will spend the next seven years at the industrial school unless paroled.

T. H. Wolford, official stenographer for the circuit court, yesterday underwent an operation at St. Francis hospital. The operation was a success in every way and Mr. Wolford stood the shock in excellent shape.

The meeting of stockholders and others interested in the Superior Industrial Development association which was to have been held last night at the Commercial club, has been postponed until Thursday night at the same place.

The board of review was yesterday engaged in hearing a complaint made by the Globe Elevator company against their assessment.

Friends of Judge L. K. Luse of this city were surprised yesterday to learn of his marriage Saturday to Miss Anna Louise Sund, also of Superior. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Straw Saturday and Judge and Mrs. Luse at once left for a visit to the coast.

The graduating class of the Matt Carpenter school has elected the following officers: Charles George, president; Flora Cayo, vice president; Senda Sallman, secretary; Zella Tremblatt, treasurer.

At a regular meeting of the Eagles last night it was decided to give a card party next Monday night for the benefit of the Children's Home. The following committee was appointed to have charge: Paul Domsch, Frank Dow, H. Y. Shafer. The committee appointed to investigate the advisability of new quarters for the lodge were given further time. Dr. Rene was appointed lodge physician.

"The Runaways," which proved to be such a pronounced hit at the Lyceum in Duluth last evening, will be produced tonight at the Grand with Flaaten's full orchestra.