

ALL FIRST CLASS DRUGGISTS.

---

Martin Ackerson, son of P. Ackerson of the Wisconsin Svenska Triben, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is rapidly recovering.

Douglas circuit court will convene this morning, the jury having been summoned for 9 o'clock. There is but little business to be disposed of and the session will probably be a brief one.

Curlers enjoyed two spreads at Courtney's yesterday. The Hanitch rink was compelled to buy the oysters for the Grace rink, and A. K. Smith's rink provided a turkey supper for the Nichols rink.

Ben Davidson has been arrested on the complaint of his wife, who alleges non-support.

Captain Olson of the Superior police department yesterday found a handsome gold watch chain on the street, which the owner can have by proving property.

The executive committee of Normal regents will meet at Milwaukee today to audit bills and transact routine business.

Try a want ad in the News Tribune.

The various committees of the county board of supervisors are holding meetings with a view of being in readiness with their reports on the convening of the board Tuesday, March 1.

News was received in Superior yesterday to the effect that Iver Ronning, formerly of this city, is critically ill at his home in Souris, N. D.

The Ladies' society of the South End M. E. church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. N. Rasmussen.

Superior Elk lodge is receiving many applications for membership, and there is no doubt that a large class will be initiated at the house warming of the new home in the Hammond building on March 10. Besides a business meeting, Superior lodge will hold a social session on the night named. Work on the new home is progressing rapidly, with the object in view of arranging lodge rooms second to none in Wisconsin.

A stereopticon entertainment was given at the Mission last night.

The week day prayer services at St. Alban's church will not be held today or Friday, on account of the illness of Rev. Mr. Cordick.

The county board committee on roads will start tomorrow on a trip to the country near Foxboro.

The hearing in the matter of the sale of the stock in the Webster estate will be given, a hearing before County Judge Larson today.

Deputy Game Warden P. E. Waterberry, of Solon Springs, is in the city.

J. P. Weyerhaeuser, of Nebagamon, is registered at the Great Northern.

W. F. McCarthy and wife, of Virginia, Minn., are guests at the Great Northern.