

PERSONALS.

John T. Congdon of the Metropolitan, left for New York today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Silbar of Biwabik were guests at the Spalding.

Lewis and Max Glassner visited between trains on their way home to Biwabik from Minneapolis.

Miss Myrtle Tibbetts is entertaining Miss Alice Graham of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Edward Maney and son, of 922 East Fifth street, have gone to Marquette on a few weeks' visit.

C. M. Bryant, a conductor on the Great Northern between Cass Lake and Larimore, was in the city yesterday on his way to his home at Sauk Center.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Madden of Ashland are registered at the Spalding.

J. A. T. Bertrand, Jr., and wife of Montreal are at the Spalding.

D. W. Freeman and Mrs. R. W. Freeman of Virginia are at the Spalding.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulett, Rosaline and Chester Merritt and Jessie Platt, of Pasadena, Cal., are guests at the Spalding.

C. C. Barker, of Bay City, manager of the Tower Lumber company, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. Roman, of Virginia, is registered at the St. Louis.

Mayor W. J. Power of Hibbing is registered at the St. Louis.

Mrs. E. A. Micklan of Nashwauk is a guest at the St. Louis.

J. C. Poole of Eveleth is registered at the St. Louis.

C. A. Hanscom of Ironwood was in the city yesterday on business and was a guest at the St. Louis.

P. J. Pastoret and John Dwan of Two Harbors are guests at the St. Louis.

F. P. Hammer, a prominent business man of Minneapolis, is registered at the St. Louis.

J. A. Laird of Breckenridge is a guest at the McKay.

Barney Keegan of St. Paul was registered at the McKay yesterday.