

VIRGINIA NOTES.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE,
VIRGINIA, SEPT. 24

Capt. and Mrs. M. L. Fay have returned from a month's trip to Cleveland and other eastern points, where Mr. Fay had been called by business matters in connection with his mining interests. He anticipates a decided improvement in the ore situation next season.

W. H. Cook, president of the Duluth, Virginia & Rainy Lake railway, accompanied by William O'Brien, of St. Paul, also heavily interested in the railway and lumbering industry in connection, were in the city this week, looking after business interests. It is rumored that a change in management of the road and company will develop soon.

Cap. Thomas Walters, of Ishpeming, general manager of the mining interests of the Jones & Laughlin company, limited, was in the city during the week, visiting the Grant mine at Buhl in company with Superintendent Fairbairn. It is understood that the Lincoln will not reopen until spring.

Alderman and Mrs. Conrad Mattson, of Oak street, mourn the loss of a young son, who died Thursday afternoon after an illness of several days. This is the second boy they have lost within a short time. The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon.

The Women's Aid society of the Swedish-Lutheran church will hold a fair and festival at the former Rubloff store building Wednesday evening.

A letter received by friends in the city from J. Shanedling, who with Mrs. Shanedling, is visiting the exposition, announces that they will return to the city about Oct. 10. Mr. Shanedling will also visit eastern markets before returning.

Frihet lodge No. 34, I. O. G. T. is arranging for the establishment of a library and reading room in connection with the lodge, a move which is destined to add greatly to the interest of members. English and Scandinavian literature will be furnished.
