

BREVITIES

Walter Griffith and Martha Fletcher, charged with relieving a steamboat man of a watch, had their examination adjourned until Monday in municipal court yesterday.

City Engineer White has issued a building permit to S. Chucker for the erection of a $400 dwelling at 415 Hughtt avenue.

Preparations are being made for the annual meeting of the Children's Home and Refuge association of Superior to be held at the public library building on Oct. 18 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

B. E. Edwards after spending the day in the city as the guest of his daughter, Miss Grace Edwards, public librarian, yesterday took his departure for his home at La Crosse.

Avery Bruch, a prominent citizen of Osage, Ia., and a Superior property owner, is in the city.

F. N. Chaffee, one of the members of the Republic Elevator company, was here yesterday from Carrington, N. D.

Rev. A. Lewis, pastor of the A. M. E. church, will preach at Sunday morning and evening services. He is said to be a strong speaker and an active worker.