

NEARLY LOSES THUMB.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE
VIRGINIA, NOV. 9—

James Lavick, son-in-law of J. Mesberg, the furniture dealer, while putting a washtub together this morning, had the misfortune to nearly sever the thumb off the left hand. He was using a large and very sharp knife and an accidental slip did the business. Several stitches were taken in the wound and he will be unable to work for several weeks.
