

ACCUSED OF KEEPING J. D. ZIEN'S MONEY

NEWS TRIBUNE SPECIAL:

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 23.—Samuel V. Davidor, a speculator and mining promoter, was arrested today charged with selling and retaining the money received for mining shares belonging to J. D. Zien of Duluth. Another phase of the affair is the holding up of mail for Davidor by the postal authorities.

When seen at his home, 131 East Second street, last night, Mr. Zien declined to discuss the case, saying it really did not amount to much.
