

HIBBING IN BRIEF.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ansley, of the Superior hotel, returned Friday from a visit with friends at Eveleth and Sparta.

Manager Brady has secured a game of ball with the Freimuth team for Sunday afternoon. The Freimuths will have first pick of Duluth players and the game promises to be one of the most exciting of the season thus far. Hibbing has an exceptionally strong team this season.

The Odd Fellows at their meeting Monday evening held their annual election of officers. The new officers are: John McDonald, noble grand; Samuel Harris, vice grand, and Frank Herriet, secretary. Rev. C. H. Blake was elected grand lodge representative, and he leaves the first of the week to attend the sessions of that body which will be held in St. Paul, June 13-15. The local lodge has a flattering growth the past year, new members being admitted at nearly every meeting.

The many friends of William Danahy were pleased to learn that he successfully withstood a surgical operation at the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minn., Thursday, and is in a fair way to recover. The first report was that the operation was fatal owing to the way it was sent, but his many friends were soon assured that the outlook was the most encouraging.

Harry Lewis, formerly night clerk at the Hotel Hibbing, came in from the Powers-Simpson drive Friday afternoon, and after calling on numerous friends in the village left for his home in Duluth Saturday noon.

Rev. Fr. Gamashe visited friends at Duluth Friday.

The Hebrews on this end of the Mesaba range are preparing to organize a local lodge of the Birth of Abraham, and thus far about forty persons have made application for membership. It is a fraternal insurance organization and its formation is due to the efforts of S. Levinson and Israel Rosenberg, local business men. The lodge will be instituted about June 15.

Commencing with Sunday, G. F. Peterson will look after the delivery of the News Tribune in the village outside of the news stands, having recently been appointed carrier.

The Mountain Iron ball team will play the local team on the grounds here June 18. The team at that place has recently taken on considerable new baseball timber in the hopes that it might be possible to wrest the amateur championship of northern Minnesota from the Hibbing team. There promises to be something doing at that game.

The Tom Marks company will present "Casey's Troubles" at Power theater Sunday evening under the auspices of the Hibbing base ball team. The Marks company is a popular company here, and as the play is given under the auspices of the ball team, there will be no lack of an audience.

The Hibbing ball team will appear in their new suits Sunday in the game with the Freimuths. The Hibbing cornet band will lead the parade to the grounds. The new uniforms are the compliments of Thomas Godfrey and P. R. Vail clothing house, and they are certainly fine suits.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pfremer attended the presentation of the Red Feather at Duluth Friday evening.

E. Freeman, of the law firm of Austen & Freeman, Chisholm, was attending to legal matters at Duluth Saturday.

V. L. Power, E. M. Clark, Dr. Blacklock, Dentist Robinson and James A. Robinson were Duluth visitors Saturday.

Supt. J. H. Taylor and Roadmaster Conway, of the Great Northern, were looking over the trackage of that company on this end of the range the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McIntyre returned from Minneapolis Wednesday evening after a visit of several weeks in that city.

Mrs. A. H. Powers, who has been visiting friends in Minneapolis since Memorial day, returned to her home at Headquarters Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wadsworth are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. A. S. Palley of Menominee, Mich., this week.

L. W. Brown, of Highland, Iowa, is the new night operator at the Oliver mine office.

Marcia Pattee, of Aitkin, daughter of W. W. Pattee, a prominent merchant of that place, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pfremer this week.

Mrs. A. P. Smith returned from Duluth Wednesday evening, where she has been visiting friends for some time.

Louis Shulrman, who has general stores at Sparta and Nashwauk, was in the village Wednesday. He will move his family to the latter place at an early date.

W. F. Pallenz, Jr., of the Oliver mine office, is moving from the Chicago flats into the company's house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Carmichel who will hold down a homestead in the north country.

Mrs. W. F. Palling visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson of Duluth over Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Maker returned from Grand Rapids Wednesday evening, having closed out her stock of confectionery at that place.

Dr. and Mrs. Butchart attended the "Red Feather" at Duluth Friday evening.
