

MISS ABRAHAMSON WEDS MR. HIRSCH

Bride Announces Engagement of Sister-In-Law—Dance and Reception.

Miss Lillian Abrahamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Abrahamson, of 1215 East First street, was married to Jacob Lester Hirsh, of Fergus Falls, at the St. Louis hotel, at 6:30 o'clock last evening in the presence of the family and out of town guests, Rabbi Mandel Silber performing the ceremony. The attendants were Mrs. William Abrahamson and Mrs. Julius Abrahamson.

The wedding guests assembled in one of the small parlors. In one corner a canopy of ferns and daisies was arranged for the bridal party. In the adjacent room, screened by palms, Flaaten's orchestra played several selections, breaking into the nuptial chorus from Lohengren, as the bride entered the room with her matron of honor.

A wedding supper of ten courses was served in the green dining room, at which covers were laid for 40. The decorations were green and white developed with green shaded candles, ferns and daisies.

The bride's gown was an imported model of white chiffon trimmed with thread lace and heavy rose applique. The ornaments were of pearls. Her veil was of white tulle, caught with lillies of the valley and she carried a white, gold mounted prayer book.

Mrs. William Abrahamson wore pale grey trimmed with heavy ecru lace; Mrs. Isaac Abrahamson wore black lace and jet; Mrs. Julius Abrahamson wore a dress of pale blue crepe de chene trimmed with white lace and nasturtium motifs; Miss Ernestine Hirsh wore blue crepe de chene.

At the wedding supper, W. M. Abrahamson was toast-master and the following responses were made: Lester Hirsh, "Losing a son and winning a daughter;" Jacob Hirsh, "Myself;" Julius Abrahamson, "Mothers-in-law;" Harvey Petersberger, "The Fourth of July;" Miss Ernestine Hirsh, "Love."

At this point, the toast-master presented the bride, who announced the engagement of Miss Ernestine Hirsh to Harvey Petersberger. The remaining toasts, given by Mr. and Mrs. Moses Cook, Mrs. Julius Abrahamson, Samuel Gittelson, Rabbi Mendel Silber, Miss Flossie Lazarus, Ned Abrahamson and Isaac Abrahamson, were in the form of congratulations.

From 9 until 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hirsh received at a large reception after which the guests danced in the dining room. The bridal party left on the Tionesta for the East and returning, will make their home in Fergus Falls.
