

WEDDED AT HOME OF HER PARENTS

Miss Irene Silberstein Becomes Bride of Lionel Traubmann, Large Reception Following the Ceremony at 31 West Second Street.

The marriage of Miss Irene Silberstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Silberstein, to Lionel Traubmann took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 31 West Second street, Rabbi Mendel Silber performing the ceremony at 5 o'clock. Miss Elsie Silberstein was the maid of honor, and Edward Silberstein attended the groom.

The decorations in the house were carried out in white and green, in which peonies and ferns were used. The ceremony was performed under an arch of greens and palms. The punch bowl, which formed the centerpiece on the refreshment table, was banked with white roses, and covers were laid for twenty. Robinson's string orchestra played the wedding music and also for the reception.

The wedding was attended only by family friends, but at the large reception which followed many called.

The bridal robe was of white crepe de chene and lace; a veil and a shower bouquet of bridal roses completed the costume. Miss Elsie wore a dainty Dolly Varden crepe de chene and Mrs. Silberstein had a magnificent gown of ivory taffeta and lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Traubmann left on the steamer Tionesta for a long wedding trip and will return to Duluth to make their home in the early fall.
