

PERSONALS

Mrs. Mary Davis of St. Paul is the guest of Mrs. William Colon of the Northern block, East End.

George Newton, 1821 Hughitt avenue, is in the Twin Cities on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox have returned from their wedding tour.

Senator George B. Hudnall has gone to Madison to attend the Republican platform convention.

Ennis Bennett of Richland, Mich., has arrived to make his home in Superior. He is a nephew of C. F. Brown, 1607 Fourteenth street.

Robert Schultz and Charles Cronin of Tower avenue and Joseph Herbert of the Watkins block have returned from Chippewa Falls where they attended the state fair and visited friends.

Miss Grace and Helen Shelk, who have been the guests of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Selder, 1826 Danks avenue, have returned to their home in Lewiston, Idaho.

Miss Emily Matsen, 1111 Grand avenue, has returned from the funeral of her sister in Colorado Springs, Colo.

William Forshner of Wentworth is the guest of Harry Evans, Ogden avenue.

Miss Helen Karon has returned to Eveleth, where she is teaching, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Karon, 609 John avenue.

Miss Sarah Mark, 609 John avenue, is the guest of friends in Eveleth.

Miss Sara Greene, 314 Tower avenue, has returned from a brief visit to friends in St. Paul.

W. B. Bundell and family, 1011 Banks avenue, left yesterday for their future home in Spokane, Wash. Mr. Bundell for the past eight years has been connected with the Great Northern shops at Superior.

Miss Ella Thompson, 1206 Cumming avenue, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Woodbury of St. Paul.

W. R. Fanning is here from Hudson to spend a few days with his family on Hughitt avenue. He is now in the cold storage business in Hudson.

Chester Saxby, Belknap street, has gone to New York to enter school.

Clarence Erlanson of the East End left yesterday for Madison to attend the university.

Louis Sicard of the First National bank has returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where he attended the meeting of the Bank Clerks' Association of America.