

LAKE BREEZES

Engraving—North Land Printery.

Anderson Joins Marine Corps.

Henry Gust Anderson of Brahm, Minn., yesterday enlisted in the marine corps service and will be sent to Mare Island navy yard today.

Swells Firemen's Relief Fund.

The Sattler Liquor company yesterday donated $25 to the firemen's relief fund for services rendered in extinguishing the fire in their wholesale house a week ago last night.

Would Become a Bankrupt.

Thomas K. Warden of Duluth, laborer, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States district court yesterday. The schedule sets out liabilities to the amount of $1,446 and no assets to cover.

P. D. McMartin's Funeral.

The funeral of P. D. McMartin, who died Tuesday, will be held at the Masonic temple at 2 p. m. Friday under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member. Interment will take place at Forest Hill cemetery.

Brown Returns to Duluth.

Herbert W. Brown, agent of the Pittsburg Steamship company, who has been in Cleveland to attend the meeting of the officials of the company and masters of the fleet, has returned. The assignment of masters to their boats for the coming season has not yet been announced.

Joseph Sellwood Goes East.

Capt. Joseph Sellwood, president of the City National bank, left last evening for the east. His son, Richard M., and daughter, Miss LaRue, returned yesterday from Lorain, O., where the former went to represent Captain Sellwood at the launching of the new steamer, Joseph Sellwood, and Miss Sellwood to act as sponsor for the vessel. Mr. Sellwood and his sister say they enjoyed their visit to the Lake Erie ports and were received with much hospitality.

Little, George P. Rosenblad, George Scarlett, James Sullivan, Austin Terryberry, Daniel Bishop and A. F. Swannstrom, Sr.