Howe School.

The program of the Howe school class day exercises is not quite ready for publication, but will be shortly, the principal obstacle to an announcement being the fact that it is uncertain when the assembly room of Blaine High school, where it is desired to have the exercises, can be secured. The graduates number 27 and are as follows:

Engel Amundson, Milton Barker, Grace Berthiame, Hjalmar Brown, Herman Christenson, Charles Elevier, Ida Erickson, Eva Fawcett, Dan Fitzpatrick, Mabel Gibson, Bertha Glesen, Nora Harrison, Lucy Hendrickson, Reginald Hoehle, Winnie Larkin, Jennie Lucass, Scott Marshall Stuart Miller, Carl Nelson, Linnie Perry, Maurice Peterson, Myrtle Scott, John Scott, Robert Scott, Marie Wick, Elma Wolden, Martha Zimmerman.

Bryant School.

At the Bryant no formal program will be given, although a number of musical and other selections will probably be rendered, following which a reception will be enjoyed by the class and their parents and friends. At the Franklin, Blaine, Cooper, Kimball and Webster schools programs are in course of preparation and will be ready tomorrow afternoon.
