

MANY AT DANCE IN TEMPLE HALL

Mrs. I. Freimuth Gives Benefit Party for Family of Rus- sian Refugees.

Mrs. I. Freimuth gave a dancing benefit party last night at Temple hall, for a family of Russian refugees.

The party was a success from every view point, especially that of sociability. A fine program of music and some delectable punch was provided, and for several hours, handsomely dressed women and men enjoyed the hospitality of this charming hostess.

Especially lovely were the gowns worn. Mrs. Freimuth wore black net over taffeta, with applied silk motifs. Spangled and lace gowns were much in evidence and the buds wore dainty net gowns of delicate coloring.

Among the guests were: Messrs and Mesdames A. Freimuth, Victor Kohn, J. D. Sattler, J. B. Sattler, Emil Otto, L. Albenberg, M. J. Levy, P. H. Levy, H. Y. Josephs, Frank Fleishmann, Brinkman, Gomberg, Max Shapiro, David Kohn, DeCoursey Niles, A. Gingold, Kastriner, Neuman, I. Lieberman, Joseph Orecovsky, J. Orecovsky, David Kenigsberg, Mesdames Lower, L. Oreck, Harris, Misses Karon, Stella Levy, Rose Krojanker, Sadie Polinsky, Annie Shapiro, Clara Shapiro, Hattie Shapiro, Elsie Silberstein, Bessie and Sadie Rocklin, Wyneberg, Melvitz, Harris, Winestine, Messrs, Louis Levy, Menc, Joseph Swartz, Joseph Gidding, Morris Freimuth, Harry Butchman, Otto Fleishman, S. Y. Josephs, Barney Cook, Louis Zalk, Hugo Kohn, Julius Selgel, Harry Glazier, Hirshfield, J. Kohn, Julius Cook, David Lewis, Sam Gittleson, Harry Zein, Carl Shapiro, Milton Rosenberg, Al. Rocklin, Chas. Kilma, Sam Winestine, Mayor M. B. Cullum and Rabbi Mendel Silber.