

BREVETTES

The condemnation proceedings of the Lake Superior & Southeastern railway, whereby certain property was to be secured for right of way purposes was put over for ten days when called in circuit court yesterday. The adjournment was by agreement of the attorneys for the interested parties.

Attorney J. A. Murphy, for the Great Northern road, returned yesterday from a week's trip down state. During his absence from the city Mr. Murphy attended a banquet given by the Milwaukee University club, which was given in honor of Judge Seamon, of the United States court. Mr. Murphy was one of the speakers at the banquet which was held in the Cream City on Friday night.

At the hearing of the injunction proceedings of J. F. Baars, Jr., vs. the town of Superior et al. in circuit court yesterday, Judge Vinje handed down an order maintaining the injunction in force pending the conclusion of litigation. The injunction restrains the paying out of town funds.

The funeral of Alice, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernson, 5816 Oakes avenue, will be held from the house this afternoon. Interment will follow at Greenwood. The deceased was only two years and a half old. She died Sunday morning after a short illness of pneumonia.

Sunderland & Ostrander yesterday purchased for parties living outside of the city the four lots on the southeast corner of Ogden avenue and Eleventh street, fronting on the former. The price paid is said to have been around $4,000, and were sold by the Broadway Lumber company.

County Clerk Flagstad issued a marriage license yesterday to Joseph Goldstein and Sarah Cohen, of Superior.

William T. McQuarrie suffered the loss of the index and second fingers of his right hand at the first joint by being served by one of the saws at the Cowdin planing mill yesterday morning. Mr. McQuarrie is the carpenter, employed by the board of education.