

NEIGHBORLY DISCORDS HARMONIZED IN COURT

The domestic troubles of the McDonald and Kaner families, who reside on Third street, were given an airing before Judge Parker in the municipal court yesterday. Mrs. Angus McDonald was found guilty of assaulting the head of the Kaner household, while the latter, who was charged with striking Mrs. McDonald, proved his innocence.

On the promise to keep from stirring up any more trouble, Judge Parker remitted the $5 fine imposed on Mrs. McDonald. The case against Mrs. McDonald's four children, who are charged with throwing stones at the Kaner home, was continued for a week.
