

CONCERT PLEASURES

A LARGE AUDIENCE

---

The concert given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Asbury M. E. church last evening at the Great Eastern hall was a big success, and the large audience highly appreciated the excellent program which had been prepared by Miss Grayce Frances Turner.

Miss Alice Shannon, the possessor of a wonderfully sweet soprano voice, rendered Lehmann's "Making of the Hay" beautifully. The young lady has a most pleasing personality, and charmed those who heard and saw her.

Miss Anna Oreckovsky made her first appearance before the public at this entertainment, and made a decided hit. Numbers by Mrs. Jern, Mrs. Budd and Miss Turner were artistic and satisfactory. Mr. O'Donnell was out of the city, and Ollie Dignus appeared in his place, giving Chaucey Olcott's "Love Song."

With but two or three exceptions, all of those who took part in the concert are pupils of Miss Turner, and they all did splendid work.

The members of the society are pleased with the result of the entertainment and the reception that the singers received, and will probably plan for others during the winter.

---