
PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Miss Stella Young and Miss Yeaw spent Thanksgiving in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mr. Al Abraham of 1426 East First street have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schloss.

The Lambda Sigmas gave a delightful dancing party last evening at Harmony hall.

Miss Claire Abraham of 1426 East First street had as her guest for Thanksgiving Miss Georgina Robinson of Minneapolis. Mr. Rudolph Abraham also was home from the state university for the holiday.

Miss Addie Nicholas of Ashland is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Reynolds of St. Cloud spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds of this city. The gentlemen are brothers.

Miss Katharine A. King, principal of the Bryant school was called to her home in Anoka yesterday by the death of her mother.

Miss Elizabeth Donaldson, teacher of Latin in the Moorhead Normal school is the guest of Miss Eaton of the Duluth Normal faculty.

Mrs. Bert Feslor of Lakeside left Wednesday for Topeka, Kansas to attend the funeral of her mother.

Mrs. J. Q. A. Crosby of 2608 East Superior street has cards out for bridge Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of next week.

The women of the W. R. C. were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stitt of the Esmond hotel. Some of the women sewed and others played cards.

Circle No. 4 Temple Emanuel Aid society gave a card party at the home of Mrs. Mondschine, 126 Sixth avenue west last evening, and a very good time was enjoyed.