

JOINED HUSBAND AT FARGO

Woman, Whose Child Is Drowned by
Crazed Woman While Crossing
Atlantic, Arrives.

Special to The Evening Times.

Fargo, N. D., Dec. 1.—The wife and two surviving children of Abraham Gavowsky, whom it will be remembered had such a sad experience crossing the ocean several weeks since, when a demented Swiss girl who was on board their vessel, grabbed the youngest Gavowsky child and deliberately threw it to a watery grave, arrived in Fargo last night, and joined Gavowsky, who since coming to this country has taken the name of Abe Siegel.

Siegel made his escape from Russia two years ago, in order to avoid conscription in the war against the Japs. He has not seen his wife since that time until last evening.
