

BREVITIES

The Ladies' Missionary society of the English Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Henry Anderson, 1726 Cumming avenue, this afternoon at 2:30.

Harry Hopkins, who for the past few months has been in Portland, has sold the restaurant he conducted there and will return to Superior about May 1 and will enter business of some sort here.

The National Protective Legion celebrated the fifth anniversary of the order at Odd Fellows' temple yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. C. N. Connor, of St. Ignace, Mich., made a short address and distributed dividends on the matured coupons of charter members.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Philip D. Shapira and Bessie Revelsky, of Superior. The marriage ceremony is to be performed at the new synagogue at 5 p. m., March 13. A reception is to follow at 516 Hughitt avenue.

The board of condemnation of the Lake Superior & Southeastern railroad inspected some property at the South End yesterday that is wanted by the road for right of way purposes.

Efforts to arrange a wrestling contest to take place in Superior between Billy Maynard and Jack Davis, were called off yesterday, being found that no agreement could be reached.

The seniors of the Nelson Dewey high school are making preparations for a program to be given at the school on the evening of March 16. Musical and literary numbers and a bright farce will make up the attractions.

The Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church of the East End will hold a bean social at the church parlors this evening.

Miss Irene Hiland, of the East End, after an illness of two weeks is convalescing and expects to be about within a few days.

The funeral of L. Tronstad was held from the Norwegian Lutheran church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and interment was made at Riverside cemetery. Mr. Tronstad died of typhoid fever at St. Mary's hospital on Sunday.

Judge D. E. Roberts will deliver the principal address at the fourth number of the Lyceum course at the Mission building, Fourth street and Tower avenue, this evening. The judge will talk on "Unjust Rate Discrimination and the Federal Control of Railroads."

The executors of Bernard Moore yesterday transferred to Annie S. Kelly lots 1 and 2, Belknap place addition for $970. The Anglo-Superior Investment company also transferred lot 11, block 184, Sixth division, for $350 to the same party.

Nothing of special interest is scheduled to come before the county board tomorrow on account of the fact that the last meeting was so recent. The cancellation committee met yesterday to cancel county orders.

State Forester E. M. Griffith will lecture on Forestry in the state at the library tonight. The lecture will be free to the general public.

Prof. Otto of the Blaine school lectured before the Elizabethan Drama club at the library last night on "The Evolution of Elizabethan Drama."