

Society

BEAUTIFUL Mrs. Paul Gilmore, "Dolly" as she is affectionately called by friends and admirers, was in Duluth last week with her talented husband and was royally entertained by a number of Duluth women, and entertained herself, when she was not being the guest of honor.

The romantic attachment of Paul Gilmore for his wife is too well known to need comment. Capturing her under the very nose of her teachers at a fashionable New York seminary, he married her and carried her off with him to be his constant companion on "the road." He practically never lets her out of his sight, and she goes from season to season through the arduous existence of one night stands, and only once in a long time stops over a town to recuperate.

DOLLY GILMORE.

The marriage of Miss Emma Lenson and Gustavus Johnson took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Whitton, West Duluth. Rev. J. A. Krantz, of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church officiating. The attendants were Miss Laura Larson and John Hoffman.

The wedding of Miss Minnie Harris and David Pollinsky took place Sunday evening at the synagogue on East Third street, Rabbi Teplitz performing the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Jennie Fox and George Harris. A wedding supper and reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Fox and George Harris. A wedding supper and reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Fox, 712 West Superior street.

Miss Catherine Hansen and Ira F. Durkee were married Thursday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Lutheran church. The service was read by Rev. N. A. Stenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gogins, 725 West Second street, were tendered a delightful surprise party Monday night in honor of the 25th anniversary of their wedding. The guests presented the hosts with a silver fruit basket, a set of pearl handled fruit knives and a set of silver knives and forks. The guests: Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Patterson, H. J. Reinertsen, H. O. H. Munson, George Bayha, J. W. Hilliard, H. Kushinsky, Emil Borth, Claus Jeronimous, F. H. Bayha, J. W. Brown, H. J. O'Neil, J. C. Walker, A. J. Schade, Robert Hubbert, Ella Meyers, George Hepburn, Fred Lee, M. Ryan, William Tunell; Misses Sadie A. Patterson, Bessie Gogins, Alice Gogins and Romana M. Tunell.

Mrs. Harry Wilcox, 331 East Superior street, was tendered a birthday surprise Wednesday night by the following friends: Mesdames Olaf Larson, Mary Murphy, Elizabeth Lindsey, Margaret Brown, Lillian Beck and Frederick Knowlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson Wick, 5811 Grand avenue east, entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Dr. Wilcox of Cleveland, Ohio. Covers were laid for four.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kuchenbecker entertained in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home at West Duluth. The hosts were presented with beautiful pieces of china. Those present: Messrs. and Mesdames Gust Tauffman, E. R. McLean, J. Lange, William Selfert, F. Heinrich, C. Petruschke, A. Kenwood, A. Anderson, B. Schulz, G. Johnson, E. W. Dwello, J. Bagley, William Miller, F. Marke, J. Flander, Richard King, A. Stawny, J. Beck, A. Roth, C. Busch and Miss Heinrich.

Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Murray have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Glen Lyndhurst Murray and Arnold S. Wakeman, which will take place Tuesday evening April 17 at Trinity church. The ceremony will be performed at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of the families only. Bishop James Dow Morrison and Rev. A. W. Ryan, officiating. The reception hours are from 8 to 10 o'clock, at the family home, 2028 East Superior street.

Mrs. George E. Budd and Miss Grace Turner gave a dancing party at Flaaten's Auditorium for the members of the cast of the Merry Milkmaids, Wednesday.

Mrs. W. J. Holmes, 529 Seventy-first avenue west, entertained the Guild of Holy Apostles church Wednesday afternoon. Deaconess George and Deaconess Hyde of Denver, Col., were present, and spoke on the subject of the afternoon, "The Philippines."

Mrs. John Potter, 4711 Grand avenue east, entertained the Lester Park literary club at its annual meeting, Tuesday. The following officers were elected: Mrs. W. J. Stevenson, president; Mrs. T. J. Hollister, vice president; Mrs. H. A. Dodge, secretary; Mrs. John Pinkerton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. Potter, chairman of program committee. The club will study "United States of Today" next year.

Rev. F. H. Feetham will speak at the Vesper service at the Y. W. C. A. today at 4 o'clock and Miss Alice Cooley will sing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Craig will entertain at dinner Monday, April 16, in honor of Miss Glen Muray and Arnold S. Wakeman and their bridal party.

Miss Nelle Brown and Arthur Anderson were the most graceful skaters at the Duluth Hive, L. O. T. M., roller party Wednesday, according to the opinion of Mayor M. B. Cullum. Judge W. L. Windom and Thomas McGilvray, and they were awarded prizes. The entertainment was a success socially and financially, due largely to the efficient management of Mrs. William Rock, chairman of the social committee. She was assisted by Mrs. E. Scully and Mrs. M. Crothers.

Miss Elsie Wright, of Sault Ste. Marie, and T. J. Heikkler, of Lake Nebagamon, were married in the study of Rev. T. H. Cleland, at the First Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon, Rev. George West, of Lake Nebagamon, performing the ceremony. The young people left on the night train for their new home at Lake Nebagamon.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Harry Davis Ross, son of D. J. Ross, 418 Fifty-seventh avenue west, and Miss Etta Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker, which took place at the bride's home in Waldo, Ark., Tuesday.

Mrs. Barbara Stang, commander of Duluth Hive, L. O. T. M., has appointed Mrs. Lucy Penhale captain of degree team, with permission to organize a team, which Mrs. Penhale will do Thursday afternoon at Maccabees hall with a charter membership of 24.

Mrs. Franklyn Smith, 807 East Fourth street, entertained four tables of pedro Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. D. Stearns. The favors were taken by Miss Skuse and Miss Freda Ross.

Miss Ethelbert Ebert, Hunter's Park, gave a small luncheon Thursday for her guest, Miss Frankie Powers, of Mason City, Ia. The decorations were in smilax and jonquills, and covers were laid for six.

Duluthans will envy St. Paul, which was favored with a two piano recital, a very rare event in America and especially with two such artists as Emil Paur and Rudolph Ganz, both of whom are known here for their splendid work. Following is the program, which they gave at the Central Presbyterian church, Friday evening:

- Variations on a theme by Schumann
- .....Ganz-Paur.
- .....Brahms
- .....Ganz-Paur.
- Concerto Pathetique.....Liszt
- .....Paur-Ganz.
- Sonata in D Major.....Mozart
- .....Ganz-Paur.
- Variations in B Flat.....Schumann
- Improvisation on "Manfred".....Reinecke
- .....Ganz-Paur.
- Rondo.....Chopin
- Valse.....Arenski
- Polonaise.....Arenski
- .....Paur-Ganz.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. F. Morgan, 715 East Second street, has returned from the East.

Mrs. J. H. Upham Jr., 1616 East Superior street is in Detroit.

John Goodrich left last night for the western coast for an extended trip, which may terminate in a definite location in Oregon or California. He leaves a large circle of friends to regret his departure; he has lived in Duluth since he was a boy, and won them by sheer right of an attractive personality.

Miss Josephine B. Dalley, 4603 Puelstone street, who has spent the past two months in the Twin Cities has returned home.

Mrs. W. A. McGonagle of Hunters Park has gone to Methuen, Wis., summoned by the death of her father, Mr. Sargent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassius H. Bagley, 1924 East Superior street are home from a trip to the Bermudas.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Norton, 1124 East First street, have returned from Boston and New York, where they spent the winter.

Mrs. H. W. Coffin and Mrs. Ruth Coffin of Hunters Park left Wednesday for a visit at Mankato, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Miller, 2104 East Superior street, have returned from California, where they spent much of the winter. Mrs. Heber Hartley of Cass Lake is their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Douglass, 2330 East First street have returned from a visit in California.

Mrs. A. J. Lindstrom and children of West Duluth, have returned from Kingston, Ont., where they were visiting friends.

Mrs. J. C. Hunter and son, Norman, of West Duluth, left Wednesday for a visit at Royalton.

Mrs. Owen McDonald 821 West Sixth street is entertaining Mrs. Gordon Allen of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Charrier of Two Harbors returned home yesterday after a two weeks' visit in West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gilmore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Persentine during their stay in the city, last week.

Mrs. D. S. Forgy and Mrs. F. Bell left Wednesday night for Attica, Ind., where they will remain for several weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Sharpless, Twenty-fifth avenue west, left yesterday for Nebraska for a visit and later will go to Chicago to resume her study of china painting.

Mrs. William Starkey has gone to Crookton, Minn., summoned by the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. Ellen Carlston of Atkin, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lowrie, 312 Fifty-fifth avenue west.

Miss Dolores Brower of Ashland is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mortimer Wilcox, 819 1/2 East Fifth street.

Mrs. C. K. Carberry, of Bemidji, is the guest of Mrs. Libble Gullingsrud, 31 East Superior street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jefferson and son are at Bay Lake, for the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith and Miss Gertrude Smith, formerly of this city, have returned from Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson will leave shortly for Cour d'Alene, Idaho, for an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Belle Calvarly will spend the spring

Continued from Page 2.

with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cal-y at Houghton.

Mr. M. A. Hines yesterday returned her home at Iron River, after a visit at the home of Mrs. Wil-Wardell.

Mr. A. K. Love and son of the West left Wednesday for a visit in Wisconsin, Michigan and Toronto, Can.

Mr. F. N. Allen and daughter, 231 West street, left Tuesday afternoon for St. at Chicago and Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Somers have returned from Red Wing.

CLUBS

Mrs. F. S. Shrapless, Twenty-fifth street west, entertained the board of visitors of the Second Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. S. Pierce; vice president, Mrs. S. F. Sharpless; secretary, Mrs. E. E. Williams; treasurer, Mrs.
C. S. Sharpless; chairman ways and means committee, Mrs. David Butchart; missionary committee, Mrs.
C. S. Sharpless; president of thimble bee, Mrs.
C. S. Craig.

The women of the First Methodist church held their monthly meetings at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Stewart read a paper on "East Africa," written by Mrs.
E. E. Starkey, at the Foreign Missionary society, which met at 2 o'clock.
Mrs. Kezia Bennett reported that the book offering which the woman devoted to make recently amounted to

The Ladies' Aid society met at 3 o'clock and the Home Missionary society met at 4 o'clock, discussing Alaskan Indians and the Spanish speaking people of that region. The paper of the afternoon was presented by Mrs.
C. S. Moore.

Mrs. Mary Shegren was leader of the meeting of the Bishop's club last night at Cathedral hall and under her direction an exceedingly interesting program was given. Mrs. J. E. Goodman, soprano, and Mrs. Mary Nelson, reader, were guests of the club, and both contributed to the program, Mrs.

Goodman singing beautifully and Mrs.
Nelson reading "The Old Settler's Stage Story," Carleton's exquisite tale of the West.

Mrs. John Pinkerton entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Lester Park Methodist church Wednesday afternoon.

The last program meeting of the Ladies' Literature class will be held Tuesday afternoon at the library, when the club will read Moliere's "Misan-thrope," with Miss E. M. Anderson leader. The annual meeting will be held April 17.

The following communication from Mrs. J. W. Straight, of St. Paul, chairman of the ticket committee of the biennial board of the General Federation of Women's club, has been received:

"In order to secure admission to the convention hall of the eighth biennial of the G. F. W. C., it will be necessary to secure tickets in advance. Accordingly the ticket committee respectfully requests that a voucher for list of club members of your club, who are neither delegates nor alternates, but who wish to attend the convention, be sent immediately to the chairman of the committee."

Members of the Twentieth Century club of this city, expecting to attend this convention are requested to send their names to Miss Elizabeth Anderson, 621 West Seventh street.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George H. Anthony, 218 Fifteenth avenue east, at 2 o'clock.

Social as well as musical interest is attached to the recital of the Matinee musicals tomorrow afternoon at Steinway hall, as the program will introduce Miss Katchen Geist, formerly of this city, and a relative of the Hartman-Erd families. Miss Katchen is said to possess a very beautiful soprano voice, and is soloist at St. Joseph's church, St. Paul.
Her accompanist will be Mrs. F. L. Hoffman of St. Paul.

In some respects the program for tomorrow, has a familiar aspect, not especially prominent in recent recitals. The opening number will be a two piano selection for eight hands, a favorite arrangement of the '04 program. Grace

Continued on Page 9.

Continued from Page 3.

Senior Brearley will play, also insuring some fine piano work. The full program, which was arranged by Miss Mary Bradshaw and Miss Winnifred Holmes, follows:

- Symphony in A minor (Scottish), andante con moto, assai animato, vivace not troppo.....Mendelssohn
Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. McLean, Miss Simonds, Miss Crowley.
- "Wohin" .....Schubert
"Trokne" .....Schubert
"Die Forelle" .....Schubert
Miss Katchen Geist.
Mrs. Hoffman at the piano.
- "If I Were a Bird".....Henselt
Miss Mary Paine.
- "Der Gartner".....Hugo Wolf
"Zitronen falter in April".....Hugo Wolf
"In den Schattenmeiner Locken"....
.....Hugo Wolf
Miss Katchen Geist.
Mrs. Hoffman at the piano.
- Concerto in A minor. Opus 54..Schumann Grace Senior Brearley.
- Orchestral accompaniment on second piano .....
Miss Myrtle Taber.

PROCTOR NEWS.

Lloyd Hall, a brakeman on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, returned to Proctor last week after spending the winter at Sterling, Ill. Mr. Hall brought his bride back with him.

Mr. C. M. Broadhead returned home after a few days visit with relatives and friends at Royalton, Minn.

Harry Franklin brought his bride here from Iron Junction last week. They will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Quick.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Ronayne, returned home last Wednesday from the southern part of the state, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Ronayne's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boucher and son Royal, returned last Thursday after a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Michigan.

John H. Rehbein is reported as being on the sick list.

W. Gaffney a brakeman on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, returned after an extended visit at Chicago.

Ronald Fraser visited with his brother, John Fraser, last Wednesday.

J. Phillips, a brakeman on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, returned after spending the winter at Marquette.

John Jollymore and family moved from Duluth to Third street, East side.

Miss Rosie Mollitor, spent a few days with friends and relatives at Superior, Wis.

Miss Violet Burke spent a few days with her sister, Miss Pauline, of Duluth.

Mrs. Frank Bourke returned after a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives at Chicago.

Leo Tallion, an apprentice for machinist, who has been on the sick list for a few days is able to be out and around.

The D. M. & N. Ry. is steaming the ore that was left over from last fall and will commence unloading at the docks in the near future.

Mrs. C. M. Eversole, spent a few days with her parents at Albora.

Miss Blanche Calder, of Mora, Minn., is visiting with Miss Pheryne Rappold.

The digging for the new reservoir has begun.

Mr. George Wilson, a conductor on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Ry. and wife returned home last week after spending the winter with friends and relatives at Pennsylvania.

SMITHVILLE NEWS.

Miss Hattie Overten visited Sunday in Duluth.

Andrew Nelson returned home from Fergus Falls after spending several days with his son.

Thomas Brow of St. Paul, is visiting his father here.

Adolph Nelson has returned home from Dakota. He has been very sick with pneumonia.

J. G. Brink has accepted a position with the Power company at Mile Post 17.

John Linum left for Dakota to spend a month on his homestead.

Miss Hannah Streeter of Minneapolis, is spending several months with Mrs. Murtensen.

Mrs. J. G. Brink attended the Gate City temple of Rathbone Sisters in Duluth Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Lundquist and Mrs. Ed. Johnson and son, Lester, were callers in New Duluth.

Several Duluth real estate men were out here looking up some real estate. They expect to make some large sales here this spring.

Mrs. Allen Douglass and Mrs. V. A. Dash of Duluth spent Monday here.

Miss Helen Renstrum, Kate Newbarier, Tille Swenson, Arthur Renstrum, Oscar Armundson, Mary C. Andrew, and C. Dunn are attending high school in Duluth.

The St. Louis river is open and some of our fishermen are getting their fishing tackle ready to go fishing as soon as the season opens.

Peter Hanson of Short Line Park, will move here and take charge of the section.

William Swenson has accepted a position as fireman on the America, one of the Booth boats.