

PERSONALS.

Mrs. H. J. Sherrill, of Belvedere, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. H. W. Fisher, of East First street.

Mrs. Martin Pattison left last night for Boston, and will be absent two weeks, on a visit to friends.

Ray C. Helm left last night for Omaha, on a business trip.

C. Carroll Taber, of Keokuk, Iowa, a lumberman, of that city, is at the Spalding.

G. H. Thompson and wife, of Hibbing, are registered at the Spalding.

F. G. James, of Minneapolis, was among the late arrivals at the Spalding, yesterday.

H. W. Fisher left last night for Chicago and Grand Rapids.

J. E. Brandmer and wife, of Floodwood, were guests at the St. Louis, last night.

Gertrude Barton, of Two Harbors, is a guest at the St. Louis.

Lester Spalding, of Aitkin, was registered at the St. Louis, yesterday.

Dr. H. R. Weirick, of Hibbing, was at the St. Louis, yesterday.

E. H. Ryder, S. Swanson, B. J. Haugan and C. J. Dodge, of Moose Lake, are at the Lenox.

R. R. Graham, of Aitkin, was at the McKay, yesterday.

M. J. Benjamin, manager of the Ackerly Lumber company, of Bayfield, was at the McKay, yesterday.

After six months of travel in the old world, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Zien returned yesterday to Duluth. They visited a great many points of interest in the course of their travels, and Mrs. Zien, whose health had been rather poor, returns greatly improved.