

EIGHTH GRADERS GIVE INTERESTING PROGRAM

The Eighth Grade Literary society of the Washington school rendered an interesting program Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the assembly hall, which was as follows:

President's address, Rolf Hovde; song, "Nature's Beauties," school; address, "Duluth Weather," Charles Mooney; vocal solo, "Lullaby," Jean Wanless; recitation, "A Welsh Classic," Grace Bell; "Mrs. Caudle's Lecture on Spring Clothes," Rachael Zurovsky; piano solo, Gladys Byerly.

Episode entitled "A Joke on the Landlord," Masters James Lincoln, William Peterson, Robert Miller, Mauritz Johnson, Herbert Anderson, Thomas Herstad, Edwin Berg, Irving Thompson; Misses Florence Olson, Sarah Salmovitz, Esther Whipson, Vernon Thompson.

) Mandolin, solo, Charnley McKinley; "Class History," Lena Rocklin; piano duet, Mabel Larson and Mabel Nelson; "Class Prophecy," Frances Harrington; song, "Sweet and Low," Misses Bessie Warner, Grace Bell, Frances Harrington, Lena Azinsky, Mildred Prudden, Marie Skelton.

After which the president of the literary society presented the school with a beautiful picture entitled "Holland Morn," a memorial of the class.