

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYER

WM. B. MATTHEWS
ATTORNEY AT LAW

Practices before the United States Supreme Court—Court of Appeals—The United States General Land Office—Indian Office and Congress—Special attention given to Land Concessions—Preparation of Patents and Indian Claims. Refer to the members of the Minnesota Delegation in Congress. Offices: 40 New York Avenue, Washington, D. C.

D. H. FISK
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW
Office opposite Hotel Marlham.

E. E. McDonald
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Beaumont, Minn. Office: Broadway Block

PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS.

Dr. Rowland Gilmore
Physician and Surgeon
Office: Fifth Block

DR. E. A. SHANNON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Office in Mayo Block
Phone 396 Res. Phone 397

DENTISTS.

DR. J. T. TUOMY
Dentist
1st National Bank Bld'g. Telephone No. 230

DR. WARNINGER
VETERINARY SURGEON
Telephone Number 209
Third St., one block west of 1st Nat'l Bank

DRAY AND TRANSFER.

Wes Wright,
Dray and Transfer,
104 Baltimore Ave
Phone 40

Tom Smart
Dray and baggage. Safe and Piano moving.
Phone No. 53 613 America Ave.

Bisiar, Vanderlip
Co.

Next week we will place some special bargains which will interest our customers.

Remember we carry a complete line of pianos and musical instruments.

We are agents for the celebrated Singer sewing machines.

Bisiar, Vanderlip
Co.

THE BIJOU

C. L. LASHER & CO.
C. L. Lasher, Manager
Every Evening 7:30 to 10:30
Saturday Afternoon 2:30 to 5:30

TONIGHT

Program Changes Without Notice
Admission Ten Cents

Want Ads

FOR RENTING A PROPERTY, SELLING A BUSINESS OR OBTAINING HELP ARE BEST.

Pioneer

Get Your
Good Things
To Eat

AT
The Model
Bakery, Confectionery
and Dairy Store
315 Minnesota Ave. Phone 135
THE HOME OF Model Ice Cream

The City

Souvenir envelopes at this office. S. M. Bugge was in the city last evening from Bagley.

S. M. Cook was down from Northome yesterday afternoon.

A. W. Holliday was a Royalton visitor in the city last evening.

Andrew J. Smith and daughter were here last evening from Sauk Center.

Have you seen that big line of sample belts and girdles at McCuaig's.

Typewriter ribbons, nearly all makes of standard machines at the Pioneer office.

D. and M. McCauley of Walker were among the out-of-town visitors who were in the city last evening.

W. E. Rowe of Crookston spent yesterday in this city, he having a case in the special term of court held here yesterday.

Robert Ellis, fireman on a switch engine at Staples, arrived in the city last evening for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ellis.

L. W. Larson, a member of the machine firm of Larson, Carpenter & Company of Crookston, arrived in the city yesterday noon for a visit. He was accompanied by his son Clarence.

Mrs. B. W. Lakin, wife of the new superintendent of logging for the Crookston Lumber company, returned last evening from a visit with relatives and friends at her former home, Little Falls.

Edw. T. Teitworth, county attorney of Clearwater county, was in the city on business yesterday. He was accompanied by his brother, G. W. Teitworth, claim agent for the Minneapolis Street Railway company. He was very favorably impressed with our city.

Fred Dennis, private secretary to Congressman Steenerson, was in the city yesterday from Crookston, looking after some legal matters in the district court. Fred is a very popular fellow and as the congressman's "right-hand man," is an unqualified success.

E. F. Miskella, one of the truly good citizens of Cass Lake, came over from that town of strife and contention yesterday afternoon and spent the evening in the city, returning home on the night train. Ed reports Cass Lake as being quite active, at this time.

Crookston Journal: J. L. Markham who has been employed in the buffet of the Hotel Crookston for the last nine months has tendered his resignation and will leave tomorrow morning for Bemidji where he will spend a few days before proceeding to Hibbing where he will become engaged in business with his brother who is proprietor of a large hotel.

We often hear people complain they are not able to get good lead pencils. We carry in stock an excellent line and you can get a HH, HHH, HHHH, HHHHH, or a HHHHHH. If you want a soft pencil try our BB, BBB, BBBB. We carry the celebrated Kohinor pencils, checking pencils, colored pencils. To be appreciated the line must be seen.

True Flavors

With great care, by a process entirely his own, Dr. Price is enabled to extract from each of the true, select fruits, all of its characteristic flavor, and place in the market a class of flavorings of rare excellence. Every flavor is of great strength and perfect purity. For flavoring ice-cream, jellies, cake, custards, etc.,

DR. PRICE'S
DELICIOUS
Flavoring
Extracts
Vanilla
Lemon
Orange
Rosa, etc.
can be used with perfect satisfaction.

Ask for Model ice cream. Fountain pen ink at the Pioneer office.

Miss Martha Panchotte of Park Rapids is visiting with Bemidji friends.

Big reduction on all summer dress goods at McCuaig's—Friday and Saturday.

Attorney J. A. Hendricks of Foston was in the city yesterday attending the special term of court.

North Star leaves dock every day at 9 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. for Lavina and Lake Side. Evening excursions 7:30.

Just received a complete line of sample skirts in the latest fall and winter styles in black and colors at McCuaig's.

A. P. Chadler and wife of Fargo, who have been taking an outing at Lavina, left yesterday afternoon for their home.

M. E. Hawkins, a prosperous Clearwater county farmer, residing near Shevlin, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

W. H. Roberts, who conducts a meat market at Blackduck, spent yesterday in the city and returned to his home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilm and little son returned to Bemidji yesterday afternoon from a trip to Cass Lake. They left last evening for their claim near Mizpah.

Miss Maude Bailey left yesterday afternoon for Crookston, where she will visit for a few days, after which she will visit friends and relatives at Jamestown, N. D.

Did you ever try egg biscuit? You don't know how delicious they are until you have made them with Hnn's Perfect Baking Powder. Our cook book tell how.

Charles Gilbertson came over from Cass Lake yesterday afternoon and returned last evening to his home at Mizpah. He appeared as witness in a final proof case at Cass Lake.

J. W. Smith, the Tenstrike meat man and land speculator, returned to his home last evening, after having spent yesterday in the city looking after some business matters.

J. C. Schultz, the traveling auditor for the M. & I. railway, passed through the city this morning from north-line town and went to Walker for the purpose of checking up the agent at that place.

J. Ernest Wilde, Crookston, is the way it reads on the Markham register. The gentleman is another of Crookston's good fellows who appreciates the fact that Bemidji is the top town of the north country.

The M. & I. passenger train is now supplied with two first-class coaches, instead of one, the added traffic of late necessitating more cars in order to properly care for passengers traveling over the line.

Judge M. A. Spooner and wife will leave tonight for Lake Itasca, where they will remain for several days at the summer resort of Martin Heinzelman, which is one of the very best places in the north half of the state.

Dan Rose, the buyer for the Watab Paper & Pulp company, and his brother-in law, Albert Benson, arrived in the city last night from a trip to the White Earth reservation. They left this morning for their homes at Northome.

H. A. Scharf is considerably handicapped, these days, in getting about, being compelled to use crutches. While Mr. Scharf was bathing, a few days ago, he accidentally injured his left foot to such an extent that he could not walk without the aid of the "sticks."

Miss Carrie Anderson of Ada is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hovey. She will return to her home tomorrow morning, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Hovey will leave on a visit. Mr. Hovey will go to Pennsylvania and will be accompanied as far as St. Paul by Mrs. Hovey.

The home circle of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bailey was gladdened last night by the arrival of a big, bouncing baby boy, which was born to Mrs. Bailey. Mr. Bailey is not in the city at present, but will probably arrive in the city in the morning from International Falls to welcome his new son and heir.

Horace Dunham, lineman for the M. & I. railway, left last evening for Northome, where he will put in new instruments for the telegraph line at the M. & I. station. New instruments are being placed in all the stations along the line, preparatory to the installation of a through service to International Falls this fall.

Summer Baking

We make a specialty to supply the home with good baking. Why worry and take up your time in cooking during the warm weather when you can procure choice viands at our bakery.

We make fresh pies, cakes, cookies, graham bread, cream bread, buns, and other choice goods every day.

Phone 118
THE LAKESIDE BAKERY

Legal blanks at this office.

E. C. Covey of Mizpah was in the city today.

Mrs. Charles Gustafson of Tenstrike spent yesterday in the city, doing some shopping.

Closing out sale of all muslin underwear at one-third off at McCuaig's Friday and Saturday.

F. S. Kalberg, editor of the Clearwater County Crystal, of Bagley, was in the city this afternoon on business.

Mrs. C. L. Craver of Oriska, N. D., arrived last evening on a couple weeks' visit to her son, M. E. Ibertson, of this city.

Miss Leah Bereman is entertaining as her guests Misses Anna Ellenstein of Minneapolis and Charlotta Mondschnine of Duluth.

Mrs. P. J. Russell and sons, Willie and Byron, left yesterday for Thief River Falls where they will visit with friends and relatives for a week.

Ingwall Mathison of Shevlin was down yesterday to have a hand dressed, which he had crushed last Tuesday while loading railroad steel at Rosby.

Leon Hoyte and Joe Weichelbaum of Gemmill were in the city today on their way to Cass Lake where they have business before the U. S. land office.

Pat Hawkins returned this noon from Minot, N. D., where he went the first of the week to attend the funeral of his brother, Will, who succumbed to heart disease.

Herman Engelking and Nels Miller of Northome spent this forenoon in this city on their way to Cass Lake, where the latter will make final proof on his homestead.

Deputy Sheriff Arne Solberg and wife returned last evening from Nary, where they went picking berries. They brought home with them two nice pails of fruit.

Misses Ethel and Blanche Rathmar, who have been spending the summer at the home of H. W. Bailey in this city, returned yesterday afternoon to their home at Jamestown, N. D.

Ole Anderson is making extensive repairs to the interior of his Lakeshore hotel. He is placing a tile floor on his saloon and is otherwise renovating the place, and when finished the place will present a much more attractive appearance.

Floyd Brown left this morning for Brainerd, on a business trip. He was accompanied by little Evelyn Kirk, who will visit with relatives in Brainerd for the remainder of the summer. Mr. Brown will return tomorrow evening with his wife and son, who have been visiting in Brainerd with relatives.

Crookston Times: J. M. Richards who will build a new sawmill at Bemidji in partnership with other capitalists arrived in the city this morning from Minneapolis. He had with him the plans for the new saw mill which will be one of the finest and best equipped in the Northwest. Work is to be started on the new mill at once.

W. J. Blakeley, the Farley logger, returned last evening from a business trip to Sauk Center. Mr. Blakeley owns twenty-eight head of horses which have been working on the Soo railroad at Sauk Center and Mr. Blakeley's trip to that place was for the purpose of making arrangements for shipping the teams back to Farley.

Rev. Woodcock, pastor of the Congregational church of Bagley, came over from his home last evening and left this morning, over the M. & I. railway for a trip to Minneapolis. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, W. H. Hayford of Stillwater, who has been visiting at Bagley for a fortnight. The latter stated that he was greatly pleased with his stay at Bagley and visit to points of interest in this part of the state.

Miss E. Brandon was in the city today from Littlefork.

Mrs. K. Gibbs and Miss Bessie Blakeley of Farley were visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Wimer of Marion, N. D., arrived today for a visit with her brother, Henry Funkley, and family.

Matt Jones came down from his home at Northome this morning and spent the day in this city on business.

William Grossman, clerk in the store of Fred Luken at Brainerd, is in the city and will spend several days here on a vacation.

G. E. Crocker, the representative for the Grand Forks Lumber Co., returned this morning from a visit to up-line points on the M. & I.

Mrs. J. F. Essler was taken ill yesterday and is confined to her home. Her daughter, who was very sick for several days, is improving.

J. F. Thane of Minneapolis, auditor for the Minneapolis Brewing company, is in the city, consulting with J. F. Essler, local agent for the brewing company.

Lee Jamson returned this morning from Neeley's Siding, four miles north of Puposky, where he just finished plastering an elegant farm house for Will Austin, a prosperous farmer of that place.

Rev. Father Blais returned this morning from a visit to Northome and Blackduck, where he held Catholic services. He reports a flattering condition in ecclesiastical circles at those places.

E. M. Stratton, who is employed in the G. N. railroad yards at Cass Lake, was over from that city today. He came this far to meet his wife and children, who returned this noon from a visit to Ft. Francis.

A. W. Rundquist of Crookston, the north-country representative for the Minneapolis Tribune, is in the city soliciting and collecting for the Tribune folks. The Minneapolis Tribune is one of the best papers printed in the state, and a large number of Bemidji people are regular readers of the paper.

Claude Covey, a prosperous merchant of Mizpah, is in the city today on his return from a few days' business visit to Duluth. He was met here by his sister-in-law, Mrs. McFarland of Bagley, and his brothers-in-law, Wilber and Earl McFarland, who will return with him to his home at Mizpah tonight for a week's visit.

Miss Guita Abercrombie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Abercrombie, has gone to Cass Lake, where she will visit for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Allerton, who are old friends of the Abercrombie family, and who expect to move from Cass Lake in the near future to make their home elsewhere.

Qualities of the Oyster.
A San Franciscan has discovered a new method of cutting short recitals that promise to become too long winded. An acquaintance of his who has a local reputation as a bore was one day holding forth at some length when the Californian interrupted him with: "By the way, did I ever tell you the story of the oyster?"

On receiving a negative reply he continued: "It seems that when oysters are taken from the sea they often open their shells so that the juice or liquid runs out. As this is undesirable, the experienced oyster gatherer has a tub of water close at hand into which the oyster is plunged as soon as it begins to open its shell."
"Well, and what then?" asked the other as the narrator paused.
The San Franciscan smiled.
"Oh, after awhile the oyster learns to keep its mouth shut," he remarked quietly.—Exchange.

No More
Hair Germs
Falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Your doctor knows why Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, quickly destroys these germs. Makes the scalp clean and healthy. We publish the formula of all our preparations. Lowell, Mass. W. W. Ayer & Co.

Columbus Buggies
I have just received a full carload of Columbus Buggies which are offered for sale at my barn
Double or Single Surreys, two seated open and Concord buggies, rubbertired runabouts
They can be seen at the barn. The public is invited to call and see them
500 Second St. Thomas Newby

For the Lunch Basket
We are headquarters for choice groceries, canned goods, fruits and berries, and can supply the picnic parties with the best in this line.
Creamery butter and strictly fresh eggs constantly kept in stock.
Roe & Markusen
Phone 207

SOUVENIR
ENVELOPES
The Pioneer has just received a large shipment of Souvenir Envelopes which advertise the beauties of Bemidji.
They can be had at the office at 15 cents per package.
Everybody should use these envelopes and help advertise the best town in northern Minnesota.
Business men desiring to use these can have them printed with return card.

Lumber and Building Material
We carry in stock at all times a complete line of Lumber and Building Material, Dimensions, etc.
Glass Glass Glass
We are clearing out at cost our large line of glass and can give you good values.
St. Hilaire Retail Lbr. Co.
BEMIDJI, MINN.

Noble Bros. Big Tent Show
One Week, Commencing Monday, Aug. 12
HIGH CLASS REPERTOIRE AND VAUDEVILLE
8 Big Vaudeville Acts
8 Big Vaudeville Acts
Entire change of program each night. Show grounds Cor. 4th St. and Bemidji Ave.
POPULAR PRICES