ALMOND BLOSSOM Complexion Cream

GREATEST TOILET LUXURY MADE

Cleanses, softens, purifies, whitens and beautifies the Skin. Soap and water only cleanse superficially.

Mme. Yale says: A little Almond Blossom Complexion Cream should be applied every time the face and hands are washed. It removes the dust, soot, grime, smut and amudges from the interstices of the skin and makes the surface smooth as velvet.

A daily necessity at home and abroad, a treasure when traveling by land and water. Protect the skin from cutting winds, burning rays of the sun and every injurious effect of the elements. Prevents and cures abnormal redness of the nose or any part of the face, also chapping, chafing, cold sores, fever blisters and all irritation of the skin. It is the greatest known specific for burns; takes the fire out quicker than anything else, soothes, heals and prevents scars and suppuration. Indispensable for use of infants and every member of the household. An exquisite natural beautifier. A grateful application after shaving. Excellent for massage purposes. Mme. Yale's Almond Blossom Complexion Cream is now sold in two sizes.

W. J. Stevenson to represent them at the State Federation of Women's clubs which meets at Faribault this week. Mrs. Theodore Hollister and James Geer were chosen as alternates.

The Shakespeare class and the Twentieth Century club will meet in the library Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Charles d'Autremont will read a translation from a French play.

Mrs. Walter Eastman of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting in Duluth and Superior. While in Duluth she is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Wright of No. 3 Bridgeman & Russell flats.

Mrs. George Brown of Altadena terrace entertained Wednesday at a party at which 50c was played at six tables. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The color scheme was in pink and yellow. Favors were won by Mrs. A. H. Gibson and Mrs. O. Nolan. Mrs. Brown was assisted by Miss Aileen Robertson and Miss Clara Rheinertson.

A card party was given in honor of Mr. W. G. Wallace of Cincinnati, Ohio, Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Fitzgerald. The rooms were artistically decorated in autumn leaves, and a dainty lunch was served. The head prize was won by Mrs. E. Mitchell and the consolation went to Mrs. G. Green. Those present were: Mesdames J. Williams, B. Simkins, W. Green, W. Albertson, F. Kelling, G. Carlton, T. Grimes, E. Burk, J. Raynes, E. P. Mitchell, T. Whalen, J. Brown, Corson, J. Hyller, C. Boucher, and Misses Kate Boutner, Agnes Fitzgerald and May Crowley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Sommer of 707 East Fourth street have announced the marriage of their daughter Elfrida to William M. Conway, a prominent lumber man of Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Conway will be at home after Nov. 1 at 1121 Hennepin avenue, Minneapolis.

Mrs. G. W. Morin of 314 Fourth avenue east was hostess of an afternoon party in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. G. Seecamp, who leaves Monday for her home in Seattle, Wash. The afternoon was spent in games and music, the head prize being won by Mrs. A. Kelly and the consolation prize by Mrs. W. Johns. Those present were: Mesdames J. G. Seecamp, A. Kelly, E. Fischer, J. Conklin, W. Johns, G. Beck, W. Thornhill and E. Keller, and Misses Ray Johns and Miss Blackwood.

Of interest to many people in Duluth will be the announcement that J. D. Stryker, one of the best known real estate and insurance men of the city, has claimed a New York city bride, in the person of Miss Leonora D. Clawson. The wedding ceremony, which took place on Tuesday last week at Newton, Mass., was performed by the Rev. E. D. Davidson. The presence of a few friends of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs. Stryker are expected to arrive in Duluth soon to take up their residence at Woodland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Polinsky gave a linen shower for Miss Eva Polinsky, who is to be married next month, at their home, 105 Park terrace, Wednesday evening. Cards were played by 40 guests.

Miss Anna L. Polisky and Mathew W. Koneczny were married Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Polish church. The bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Miss Agnes Polisky, and the groom was attended by his brother John. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Polisky, 72 East Second street, and at 7:30 a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Koneczny left yesterday afternoon for Chicago and after Oct. 6 they will be at home at 1727 West Second street.

Miss Marion Tuttle of Fall River, was guest of honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Freague of 1069 East First street, with whom she is visiting. The evening was spent informally, bridge being the entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Lynam's party, which has spent two weeks canoeing on the lakes and rivers in Wisconsin near Gordon, has returned to the city. As reported in the Tribune, the weather was not as pleasant as it might have been. Those in the party besides Dr. and Mrs. Lynam and family were: Mr. and Mrs. George Richards, Miss Ruth Markell, Miss May Sherwood, Roy Ostram and Arthur Kreiger.

Miss Catherine Peffer and Paul John Thorn were married Tuesday morning at St. Anthony de Padua church, on East Second street, by Father E. H. Regle. Miss Pauline Kriemer of this city, and Miss Mayme Brockhoff of Wadena, were the bridesmaids and the groomsmen were Robert Peffer and August Mansoff. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thorn will be at home in Duluth.

Philip Abramson, formerly of Duluth, but now of Aberdeen, Wash., will be married to Miss Sara Tobias of Denver, Colo., at the home of the bride's aunt in Portland, Ore., on Oct. 8. Mr. Abramson is well known in Duluth.

Mrs. G. G. Hartley of 1305 East Superior street, entertained at a luncheon at the Country club Tuesday, at which covers were laid for 20 guests. Asters were the table decorations. Wednesday afternoon Miss Jessie Hartley gave a luncheon at her home and Thursday Mrs. Hartley was again hostess at the Country club.

The annual reception to the teachers of Duluth and the educational rally was held Friday evening at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association, which were prettily decorated for the occasion. Red and green was the color scheme, mountain ash berries being used. Red candles were placed artistically about the room.

About 150 teachers and members of the association called between the hours of 8 and 10 p. m. At the punch bowls were Mrs. J. D. Titcomb, Miss Olive Horne, Mrs. Brewster, Mattox and Miss L. Ella Roe.

The receiving line were: Mrs. W. C. Agnew, Mrs. J. D. Titcomb, Miss Olive Horne and Mrs. Wesley Feetham, Mrs. E. T. Hughes, Miss Alice Rockwell, Miss Grace Duncan and Miss Agnew Wells also assisted about the rooms. In every way the reception was all that could be wished for.
