Shea, formerly of Eveleth, now of North Yakima, Wash. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents by the Rev. J. C. Farley of Glen Avon Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Shea left for Minneapolis where they will visit for a few days before going on to North Yakima to make their home. Several people from out of town were guests at the wedding, including Mrs. P. Chalmers of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis and daughter of Proctor, W. H. Shea, father of the bridegroom, of North Yakima, Wash., and R. L. Griggs of Athens, Pa.

CALENDAR OF THE EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Monday—Orange social at the Trinity chapel; meeting of the executive board of the Twentieth Century club.

Tuesday—Charity ball; German literature class in afternoon; Ladies' Literature club with W. H. Hoyt.

Wednesday—Browning study class in the morning; Dy-Ivyk club dance; Miss Silberstein's dinner for Miss Cora Shapiro and Dr. Lefkowitz.

Thursday—Thanksgiving Day.

Friday—Meeting of the Woman's council; dance in the evening.

Preparations have been going on so long for the Charity ball that it scarcely seems possible that the great event is so near at hand as next Tuesday evening. The fashionable modistes are rushing their girls to finish the gowns, while the shops are busy showing and selling costumes, cloaks and accessories.

The women who have been working so faithfully to make the ball a success for sweet charity's sake have about completed their plans, but the rush at the end and the strain in having the affair "go off" well is still before them. As the duties of the Christmas season are crowding to the fore, it will be a great relief to those who have given so much of their time and strength to feel that the ball is successfully over.

For those who are to be guests at the party there is much pleasant expectancy. The ball will undoubtedly be more beautiful and unique than any of its predecessors. The women in charge are particularly clever and are sparing no pains to have the most minute details harmonious and beautiful.

Quick responses are coming in. A large number of people from the surrounding range towns are expecting to attend the ball and do their Christmas shopping while in town.

A full and correct list of those who are to assist at the ball has been made out. The receiving line will be of the officers and members of the board, who are: President, Mrs. F. H. White; vice president, Mrs. S. P. Holden; secretary, Mrs. J. N. McKindley; assistant secretary, Mrs. A. C. Hubble; treasurer, Mrs. A. D. Goodman; chairman of finance, Mrs. T. J. Davis. The members of the board are: Mrs. C. E. Lum, Mrs. R. N. Marble, Mrs. J. H. Crowley, Mrs. M. R. Baldwin, Mrs. T. F. Cole, Mrs. J. G. Williams, Mrs. J. B. Richards, Mrs. Edward Hazen, Mrs. John Pantan, Mrs. J. P. Gordon, Mrs. S. G. Knox, Mrs. L. S. Loeb, Mrs. Van Loo, Mrs. T. W. Hoopes, Miss Hoatson.

A number of men will assist. Among them: W. J. Alcott, Morton Miller, A. E. Wolvin, W. R. Eaton, W. G. Hegardt, E. Silberstein, A. W. Hartman, George H. Crosby, J. B. Cotton, B. W. How, J. T. Gordon, Dr. J. M. Robinson, Roy Ostrom, W. S. McCormick, G. H. Jones, A. Cokelair, L. W. Farmer, William Dalrymple, Ward Ames, Jr. The advisory board will also assist. They are: Hon. J. D. Ensign, Wardwell Ames, A. L. Ordean, S. G. Knox, C. A. Congdon.

The largest social event of the past week was the marriage of Miss Virginia Morris, daughter of Judge Page Morris, to Thomas Ring, son of Clark L. Ring, of Saginaw, Mich., which took place Thursday evening at the Morris home on East First street. The Episcopal service was read at 8 o'clock by Bishop J. D. Morrison of this diocese and Rev. A. W. Ryan of St. Paul's church.

Miss Morris was given away by her father. Miss Mary Morris, her sister, was her only attendant. Mr. Ring was attended by Roger Hill of Saginaw. Gilbert Cutler and William McLennan acted as ushers and bore the white ribbons which formed the bridal path to the altar in the front drawing room. The bride was gowned in white tulle, trimmed in liberty satin bands, round point lace and applique, the under foundation being of chiffon over liberty satin. Miss Mary Morris wore a gown of shaded pink chiffon. Mrs. Morris received in heavy white brocaded satin.

On account of the social prominence of both the young people and their families, the wedding was of necessity a large one, more than a hundred guests witnessing the ceremony. Several out of town people were here, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. Clark L. Ring, Miss Jessie Ring and Miss Elizabeth Ring, all of Saginaw; Miss Elsie Hanchett of Saginaw; Dwight Merrill of Seattle and Roger Hill of Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ring have gone on an extended tour of the eastern cities, stopping first at Chicago, from where they will go to New York. On their return they will be at home at Vancouver, British Columbia, where Mr. Ring is engaged in the lumber business.

Mrs. W. G. Hegardt entertained the "Poppy Fair" chairmen of the East End circle of Pilgrim Congregational church at her home, 1708 East First street, yesterday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. Alexander Milne and Mrs. John Leroy Martin, the managers, Mrs. Rebecca Boyington of the advertisement and social tea department; Mrs. G. E. Macomber of the home-made candy; Mrs. Clarence Dunning, dolls, Mrs. T. J. Maddon. The committee on the dairy lunch and the play are preserving a mysterious air but do much smiling among themselves.

Mrs. J. A. Stetson entertained yesterday afternoon for her son, Bradford, in honor of his sixth birthday. The guests were: Sylvia Joseph, Vivian Turnblad, Donald Taylor, Charles McDonald, Sryall Graves, John Marshall, Irving Joseph, Ray Stetson.

Word was received during the week of the engagement of Lieut. Frederick G. Coburn, formerly of this city, now of Boston, Mass., to Ethel Furber Vinal, of Newton Center, a suburb of the Massachusetts metropolis. Lieutenant Coburn, whose family still lives at 224 Fourth avenue west, is well known in this city where his career, since he left the Duluth high school in his junior year to enter Annapolis Naval academy has been watched with interest. The wedding, which will take place about Christmas time, will be followed by a visit with Lieutenant Coburn's mother in this city.

Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Minnie Lota Whitney, of Marshall, Minn., to Fred Anabel Hills, of this city, for Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, at the Presbyterian church. Marshall. Miss Whitney is the daughter of Capt. C. C. Whitney, who is well known in the city. He was state printer for eight years, has been prominent in Republican politics and is a member of the editorial association. Mr. Hills is the northern agent for the Great Northern railway. He is a popular member of the railroad fraternity of Duluth and much interest is felt among the railroad men in the approaching nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Max P. Shapiro Thursday issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Clara Shapiro, and Dr. Maurice Lefkowitz of this city. The wedding will take place Wednesday, Dec. 4. The wedding service will be read by Rabbi Lowenthal of Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Lefkowitz and his bride will be at home in this city. A family wedding supper at the Spalding will be followed by a large reception.
