

WEST DULUTH IN BRIEF.

A. H. Donald, of Sixty-third avenue west, left last evening for Lower Michigan, where he has been summoned on account of the sudden death of his father, which occurred Wednesday night.

Patrick Hogan, 201 North Central avenue west, is confined to his home, seriously ill.

Ed Myers has resigned his position with the Charles Silger cigar factory.

Samuel Spooner, of the Phillips hotel, is laid up with a crushed leg. He seriously injured his limb yesterday at the coal dock where he has been employed.

Walter Riska, 5231 Wadena street, received a letter yesterday from his brother Carl, who left some time ago for Arizona for his health, in which he states that he is now in a sanitarium where he will receive two months treatment. He reports that he is getting along very well.

In a letter to a friend in West Duluth, Arthur Rosene, who has won quite a reputation as a wrestler, states that he has just undergone an operation in Chicago and that he will not be able to come to Duluth for several weeks.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Armstrong, 315 Lake avenue. After the business session the hostess served refreshments.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jensen, Fifty-seventh and Grand avenues, died yesterday morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the residence, Rev. W. J. Lowrie officiating.

At the revival services last evening at the Hazelwood Presbyterian church, Rev. S. A. Blair preached the sermon. The final meeting of the week will be held this evening.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Westminster Presbyterian church will give an elaborate Valentine social in the church parlors this evening. A program of recitations and music has been prepared and games will be played.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Abrahamson and son, of 516 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, left yesterday afternoon for St. Paul, where they will attend the thirty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mrs. Abrahamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mark, formerly of this city.

The members of the Nonpartei club, of the Plymouth Congregational church, will give a Valentine social this evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson, 14 South Fifty-fourth avenue west.

Lyman Fargo, of the American Carbolite works, is confined to his room at 303 North Fifty-sixth avenue west, on account of illness.

Aleck Lewis, 425 North Fifty-first avenue west, who was hurt last Monday at the Carbolite works, is slowly improving.

Sheldon A. Given, of Minneapolis, was a business visitor in West Duluth yesterday.