

BIWABIK

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

BIWABIK, Feb. 16.—Joseph Holub recently sold his business property in Sparta to Frank Rabinowitz of Eveleth, who will fit it up for a saloon. The consideration was $3,600. Mr. Holub has opened a meat market in McKinley and will move his family there. In a partnership with Anton Mainz he has also purchased the Biwabik market of Papp Bros. and Mr. Mainz is now in charge.

Annie Fabich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fabich, and Nivk Bajuk were united in marriage last Sunday at the Catholic church, Rev. Salavian performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bajuk will reside in Elba. The bride is but 14 years of age.

Superintendent Grae of the public schools is making arrangements to cut down the grade course from nine to eight years and will make promotions all along the line in order to accomplish it.

Mrs. H. G. Seeley has been called to Hastings, Mich., on account of illness of her mother.

Plans have been drawn for a new jail building at McKinley to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

A large number of young people drove to Aurora last evening to attend a masquerade. All report having had a delightful time.

The local Knights of Pythias celebrated the anniversary of the birth of the order at their hall last evening. The principal feature of the evening was an address appropriate to the occasion delivered by F. L. Young of Duluth. A number of vocal and instrumental selections added to the evening's festivities. A fine banquet was served.

The Finnish Temperance society gave a very successful masquerade ball at the village hall last evening.

Dr. Hovde departed yesterday, for Kenyon, Minn., where he was called on account of the serious illness of a friend.

Louis Pagnuco will soon begin the erection of an addition to his building in which he will establish a first-class pool and billiard hall.