

BREVITIES

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chucker, 415 Hammond avenue.

The ladies of the East End Presbyterian church gave a successful George Washington social at the home of Mrs. Hamline H. Smith, West Sixth street and Walbridge avenue, last night.

Rumors that negotiations for a site for another coal dock are under way have been revived, but as yet nothing definite concerning the proposition has been made public.

A program consisting principally of vocal and instrumental music was given at a Washington social held last night in the parlors of the Hammond avenue Presbyterian church. Among those on the program were: Mesdames C. Wilson, A. Roberts, R. McIntyre, Misses Margaret Link, Florence Clarke, Alta Terry, Inez Snyder, Lynn Wilson and H. A. Johnson.

The funeral of Peter Witkowsky, who was scalded to death by the bursting of a steam pipe at the pipe foundry Thursday, will be held from the Polish Catholic church to Calvary cemetery at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

The trespass suit of B. C. Cooke against W. F. Mackey was taken up before Judge Vinje in circuit court yesterday, and will probably be finished some time today. Cooke is suing to recover $2,000 for alleged trespass on some lands in Bayfield county by Mackey.

The funeral of Fred Johnson, who died Tuesday, was held from his late residence, 282 Main street, to Riverside cemetery yesterday afternoon.

John Van Helden, secretary to Bishop Schinner, who is now a sub-deacon of the church, will be ordained a deacon by the bishop at the Sacred Heart Cathedral at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. At the same hour a week later, Deacon Van Helden will be ordained to the priesthood by the bishop.