

WILL PREACH TO GRADUATES TODAY

Baccalaureate Sermon Will Be Delivered This Morning by Rev. H. O. Hannum.

This is the first day of high school commencement week. The graduating classes of the Blaine and the Nelson Dewey will assemble this morning with their friends at the Pilgrim Congregational church, to hear the annual sermon. Rev. H. O. Hannum will be the speaker, taking as his subject "The One Thing Needful." The chorus choir will render the Te Deum and other special musical numbers will be given.

The remaining features of the high school commencement season are the Nelson Dewey class senior play "Prof. Robinson" to be given Tuesday evening at the East End Music hall; the Nelson Dewey class exercises to be given at the assembly room of the school Wednesday evening; the graduating exercises at the Grand Opera house Thursday evening; the Nelson Dewey Junior-Senior ball at the Euclid hotel Friday evening. The programs and arrangements for all these events will be as previously given out.

The lists of graduates of the Bryant and the Ericsson schools were made up yesterday, and with these the schools have all made their announcements for the closing of the year's work.

Ericsson Graduates.

The Ericsson graduating class will number 28, and possibly others may receive diplomas by reason of special credits. Those on the regular list are: Laura Ackley, Borgina Anderson, Isabelle Anderson, Eliza Brinkman, Lydia Erickson, Emma Erickson, Alice Dorf, Edna Dean, Isabel Dean, Mary Hoffelder, Annie Hutchinson, Esther Johnson, Lillian Kaner, Blanche McLennan, Josephie Peterson, Elfrida Refke, Clara Uthus, Maribell Schaum, Victor Backstrom, Runo Carlson, Joseph Gallagher, Ernest Henry, Lewis Holzberg, Theodore Oldham, Alfred Street, Harry Soloski, Willie Thompson and Helmar Westlund. These will receive their diplomas at an informal reception to be held for the class, their parents and a few friends during the week.

Class Day at Bryant.

There will be a reception at the Bryant school Wednesday evening in honor of the graduating class and a class day program of an informal character will be given. The program will include music, physical culture drill, and the usual addresses. The diplomas will be presented by Dr. L. A. Potter, president of the school board. In addition to the graduates and their parents, only a limited number of friends will be present at the exercises.

The following are members of the class:

Carl Bayless, Alfred Bendler, Chesley Cramer, Robert Miller, Lester Potter, Nell Rasmussen, Burr Wilcox, Mary Griener, Ruth Healy, Ruth Valby and Amelia Wenny.

The members of the class were yesterday the guests of the alumni association on a ride to Black River Falls and return. Misses Blood and Johnson and Rev. Mr. Parrish were the chaperones. Friday the boys of the Y. C. L. and the girls of the L. D. C. gave a joint program at the school, the chief feature of which was the presentation to the school by the two organizations of a handsome armchair. The presentation speech was made by Burr Wilcox.

The manual training and art exhibit of the Bryant will be opened Tuesday afternoon and continue through the evening of that day and all of Wednesday. The display will be a large one with an excellent representation of the work of the year done by the various classes.
