

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The French Dramatic club has taken up the study of "La Grammaire," by Labiche. The cast contains four boys and one girl.

Monday afternoon the Public Speaking club will hold a debate to decide upon the sophomore debating team. The subject is: "Resolved, that the need of a parcels post is sufficiently urgent to warrant the establishing of such a post by the national government."

Special exercises were held yesterday morning in chapel in honor of George Washington's birthday. Mr. Smith gave a talk on the character of Washington, after which the members of the Musical society gave a program. Following is the order of the numbers: "America," school; solo, "Emblem of Freedom," Francis Burris; "Banner of Freedom," Maud Mattison and chorus; solo, "My Own United States," Maud Mattison; "Fling Out the Banner," chorus; tribute to Washington, Professor Lambert; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," school and chorus; "Star Spangled Banner," school and chorus.

Mr. Smith read the names of the seniors who are on the honor roll for their four years of school. The following five are distinguished pupils: Leo Schmied, Ella Johnson, Signe Anderson, Ruby McNeeln, and Borghild Hoff, who is making the four-year course in three years. Mr. Smith reads the names of 12 pupils each year and only the first five are honor pupils. Arthur Sundeen, Della Smith, Pearl Elevitch, Andrew Meldahl, Amy Shephard, Marjorie Armstrong and Nina Berg are the others who make up the twelve.
