WILL STUDY BIBLE HISTORY AND MEN

Jewish Women Ask Library Board to Buy Encyclopedia Set.

For the purpose of studying the Bible from a historical standpoint, a number of Jewish women have recently formed a club or Chautauqua, as it is called. The club is to meet Wednesday, in the vestibule of the Temple Emanuel. The Bible will be studied from its beginning with special attention to its historical bearing and a thorough study of the characters. Yesterday's meeting was held with Miss Newman as leader. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, when Mrs. Joseph will lead.

The city library has been asked to prepare a list of books on Jewish history and literature. The club has also asked the library board to purchase a set of Jewish encyclopedias, which contain full accounts of the prominent Jewish figures in history. The set costs about $200. The board has not acted upon the matter.

Mrs. S. Goldberg has been elected leader of the club and Mrs. Louise Freimuth, secretary and treasurer. The members are: Dr. and Mrs. M. Lefkowitz, Mrs. S. Goldberg, Mrs. Louise Freimuth, Mrs. H. Y. Joseph, Mrs. M. Cook, Mrs. A. Abraham, Mrs. H. Abraham, Mrs. Morris Freimuth, Mrs. J. D. Sattler, Mrs. I. Freimuth, Mrs. E. A. Silberstein, Mrs. M. Levy, Miss Elsie Silberstein, Miss Deborah Leo, Miss Helen Metzler, Miss Florence Levy, Miss Marian Levy and Miss Hilda Newman.
