

YOUNG WEDDED COUPLE EXPECTED AT VIRGINIA

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, Minn., Aug. 24.—The relatives from Virginia and Eveleth, who attended the wedding of Harry Shanedling and Miss Belle Geisenfeld, in Milwaukee, on the 16th inst., have returned home and the bride and groom are expected the latter part of the week. The ceremony took place in the Elks' club rooms, there being 250 guests present. Dr. Caaro, the Jewish rabbi, performed the service. The bridesmaids were the Misses Jeanette Shanedling, Lena and Laura Geisenfeld and Sarah Prozinski. The groomsmen were Henry Shanedling, Herman Geisenfeld and H. Goldman. Those in attendance from Virginia were Messrs. Julius and M. Shanedling, Miss Jeanette Shanedling and Henry Shanedling; from Eveleth, Mesdames M. Pearlman and G. Pearlman.

The bride is the daughter of a prominent wholesale clothing dealer in Milwaukee and has visited in Virginia several times. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Shanedling went to New York and other eastern cities on a honeymoon trip and when they reach Virginia will be domiciled in the house on Maple street, recently purchased by Mr. Shanedling.
