

Miss Edith Magurn was pleasantly surprised at her home, last Friday evening, by about fifteen of her young friends. Dainty refreshments were served by the guests and before leaving they presented Miss Edith with a handsome souvenir spoon of the Blaine high school. Miss Edith leaves for California in a couple of weeks. The following were present: Misses Laura White, Mazie Farrell, Ruth Healy, Martha Mast, Margaret Link, Ruth Van Buren, Vera Davis, Clara McDougal, Margaret York, Isabel Dean, Isla Putnam, Clarie Copp, Hermia Mueller, Irma Husker, Anna Coombes and Violet Specht.

Miss Anna Johnson, 857 West Fourth street, was surprised by a number of friends last evening. The event being in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in playing games of an informal nature, after which the guests were served dainty refreshments. Miss Johnson was presented a beautiful bracelet just before those present left for their homes. Those who composed the party were: Misses Lena Nordnes, Jennie Johnson, Ruth Desimval, Olive Petersen, Kitty Smith, Edith Hill, Lillian Nordnes, Christina Flesvig, Clara Flagstad, Mary Flagstad, Henrietta Desimval, and Messrs. Oscar Nordnes, Roy Bullis, Emil Johnson, Oscar O. Nordnes, Martin Flesvig, Earl Smith, Roy Webster, Emil Swanson, Ernest Nelson, Oscar Larson, Henry Fiege, Edward Peterson and Lester Lee.

Following their regular meeting at their headquarters last Friday, the Daughters of Erin, division No. 2, rendered a St. Patrick's day program which was received with hearty applause. The division will attend mass at Sacred Heart cathedral this morning at 8 o'clock in a body. The program as rendered Friday, follows:

- Wearing of the Green.....The Division
- St. Bridget, Patroness of Our Order.....Mrs. Agnes Cannon
- The Emblem of Ireland.....Little Alice McDonough and Marie McCormack
- Humorous Reading.....Miss Blanche Murphy
- Trinity College, Education in Ancient Ireland.....Mrs. J. M. Rooney
- Instrumental Duet.....Misses Nellie McDonough and Anna Rooney
- The Ideal Irish Woman.....Miss Catherine Winkels
- St. Peter at the Gate; The Songs My Mother Sang.....Miss Healy
- The Charms.....Mrs. Ledwidge
- The Famous Brannigan Band Mrs. Rooney
- The Minstrel Boy and St. Patrick's Day.....Mrs. Jaa. Casey
- Believe Me if All These Endearing Young Charms.....Miss Zella Gardner, Cass Lake.)
- The Mission of the Hibernian Women.....Rev. Fr. McCarthy of Duluth
- God Save Ireland.....The Division

The engagement of Miss Wilmeta Holman to Peter Coutoure was announced at a carnation tea given at the home of the mother of the bride-to-be last Saturday afternoon. The young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Holman and is well known among the younger set of the city. For some time past she has been a member of the teaching staff of the city schools having been at the Nelson Dewey, until recently. The ceremony will be solemnized at the Holman residence, next Tuesday evening. The bride and bridegroom-elect will be attended by Miss Edna Holman and Mr. Denis Coutoure, sister and brother of the contracting parties.

The home of Mrs. A. A. Roth, 1827 John avenue, was the scene of the quarterly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church last Wednesday afternoon, and the afternoon was one of the most pleasant gatherings that the society members and their friends have had. Mrs. Roth has for the past few years opened her home at this season of the year to the society and each of the events has been most successful and delightful. The hostess took advantage of the nearness of St. Patrick's Jay and her decorative scheme was worked out in the emerald hue typical of the day. Large shamrocks and green festoons were in evidence throughout the rooms. The program was composed of numbers dear to the hearts of the Irish and lovers of the patron saint and the holiday. It was as follows:

- Piano solo.....Selected
- Song.....Wearin' o' the Green Emerald Quartet.
- Recitation.....Shamus O'Brien Miss Mary Doonan.
- Vocal Solo.....The Dear Little Shamrock Miss Marie Smith.
- Reading.....The Fighting Race Miss May Wiley.
- Vocal solo.....Selected
- Song.....Moonlight on Kilarney Mrs. E. P. Nelson.
- Recitation.....Selected
- Vocal Solo.....Selected

The quartet mentioned wore dresses of white trimmed with green bows, rosettes and ribbons.

The election of officers, for the coming year, of the Liberty Grove Sewing circle was held at the home of Mrs. P. E. Elevier last Thursday afternoon. The result of the balloting showed Mrs. J. P. Clemens, Mrs. J. Sharon, Mrs. R. A. Brooks and Mrs. J. Dickerson to have been chosen to act as president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The next meeting of the society will be held next Thursday at the home of the newly elected president at 1220 Broadway.

One of the most enjoyable banquets yet given by the pedagogues of the city was given by them at the Commercial club dining room last Wednesday evening. Place cards for the occasion consisted of caricatures of the parties to occupy the various seats. Several informal talks were given by some of those present after the disposal of the viands, Prof. A. C. Shong, acting as toastmaster.

The Royal Neighbors, and their friends, were entertained by Mrs. E. H. Gale, at the Odd Fellow's temple Wednesday afternoon. Cards were played during the afternoon, and the prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Mullen, Mrs. S. Armour, Mrs. E. Duteau and Mrs. J. Blaney. Next Wednesday the ladies will be entertained by Mrs. H. Worley.

Nearly one hundred South Enders were at the "pound party" given at the Fifty-ninth street Methodist church, by the congregation and members of the organization, for the pastor and his wife. Games of an informal nature served to wile away the early part of the evening, and refreshments were served later. Mr. Robert Stewart made the presentation speech upon giving the "pound" gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Bortel.

The marriage of Miss Gerda Johnson and Mr. Carl E. Granstrom, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, near Hawthorne, Saturday noon. The young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Granstrom will make their home at 1209 Grand avenue.

The members of the Old Fashioned Pedro club were entertained by Mrs. W. A. Woods, 1705 Banks avenue Tuesday evening. The evening was spent playing cinch, the favors going to Mrs. C. L. Hopp and Mrs. N. J. Coleman.

Mrs. Flora E. Harcourt and Henry Ward, chairman of the Town of Superior, were united in marriage by Rev. L. K. Grimes at 2 o'clock Sunday, at the Presbyterian manse. The newly married couple will make their home at the South End where the groom is engaged in business.

Rev. J. E. Linner performed the ceremony wherein Mr. Otto Smith took Miss Fannie Nyquist as his wife, at the future home of the couple, 904 North Fifth street. Misses Annie Stone, Maude Anderson, Jennie Johnson and Irene Corin attended the bride, while Messrs. Fred Smith, Erick Lindberg, Fred Nyquist and Victor Johnson attended the groom.

Mrs. C. L. Hopp will entertain the members of the Old Fashioned Pedro club at her home Tuesday evening.

Miss Rose Stone and Mr. Benjamin Kaner were united in marriage, by Rabbis' Gorman and Tremblatt at Maryland hall last Sunday evening. Following the ceremony, the friends present, of whom there were about three hundred, were served with an elaborate banquet and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Kaner left on a trip abroad the following morning.

Mrs. Albert C. Shong, Becker avenue, was hostess to the Agenda club, Saturday afternoon. Five Hundred was played at four tables the favors going to Mrs. A. E. Herschleb.

The Superior Woman's club will meet next Friday, M. Lewis, East End. The subject will be "Poland," with Miss Ella Roberts as leader.

Mrs. F. L. Wilcox of the South Side, was hostess Monday afternoon to the Mary Arden Shakespeare club. "Hamlet" was the subject, with Mrs. J. S. Heule as leader.

Mrs. R. D. McEwen, Stinson avenue, entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon.

The Superior Bridge club, met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Thomas Simons.

Miss Grace Britton of the Broadway flats was hostess to the members of the O. P. M. club Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Hess, 1612 North Seventeenth street, entertained St. Martha's Guild Tuesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of Pilgrim Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. P. S. Elwell, John avenue.

Mrs. Alex Grant, Hughitt avenue, was hostess to the Thursday Sewing club last week.

Mrs. A. E. Holmes was hostess to a number of her friends at dinner Saturday evening at Hotel Superior.

Miss Kittie McRae, Hammond avenue, has returned from a few days' visit with friends at Cass Lake, Wis.

The missionary society of the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church held a missionary tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Roth, 1827 John avenue. The decorations were green. Several musical numbers were rendered and a pleasant afternoon was spent by all attending.

The Neighborhood Bridge club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Gurdon Wilson.

Mrs. F. C. Cerveney of Eveleth, Minn., spent a few days last week with Mrs. E. L. Hanton of the Broadway.

The Ann Hathaway Shakespeare club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Harrie Rogers, John avenue. "Richard the III" was discussed with Mrs. Will Whitney as leader.

Mrs. C. S. Knox of the Albany block was hostess to the Eliza Shaw Guild of the Church of the Redeemer, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Webb, Twentieth street, was hostess to the Ramblers, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Russell and daughter, Miss Marion Russell, Hammond avenue, will leave this week for the south where they will spend some time.

Miss Ruth Foley, 1409 Cumming avenue gave a delightful musical at her home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. R. Hille, Division avenue, was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the East End Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. L. Buchanan, Ogden avenue, has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., where she will remain some time.