

women are eagerly taking advantage of the opportunity.

Lumber Business Dull.

P. M. Shaw, Jr., a well known lumber broker of Duluth, has returned from a business trip to the Pacific coast. He says the lumber industry on the coast is quiet, but there is a very good demand for Idaho white pine. Mills that turn out his product are generally busy.

Raised a Row; Fined.

Barney Karon, charged with disorderly conduct committed in a local theater was sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or spend 10 days in the county jail by Judge Cutting yesterday. Karon raised a disturbance with two foreigners in a theater Saturday afternoon and was ejected. He was arrested by Officer Grandmason.

Funeral Tomorrow.

Axel Bjorkman, 44, died yesterday at 114 Third avenue east of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the residence. Interment will be in the London road cemetery. He is survived by a wife and several children. Mr. Bjorkman was a member of the Woodmen and Workmen lodges and these organizations will be represented at the funeral services.

Funeral Wednesday.

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Mackey will be held on Wednesday morning instead of this morning as previously announced. It was formerly the purpose of the relatives to take the body to St. Paul, but this has been given up and the services will be held at the O'Flaherty residence, 312 West Second street, and at the Cathedral immediately after 8 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

LAKE BREEZES

Good Printing—Northland Printery.

Dies of Blood Poisoning.

Kate McDonald, 22, died of blood poisoning Sunday at St. Mary's hospital. Her mother will take the body to her home in Custer, Michigan.

Wife Accuses Him.

Edward Heenan pleaded not guilty in municipal court to a charge of assault preferred by his wife yesterday and will be tried Wednesday. Bail was fixed at $30.

Kept Shop Open; Fined.

George J. Mardoff was fined $10 yesterday by Judge Cutting on charge of keeping open his barber shop in the St. Louis hotel on Sunday. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

County Club Today.

A meeting of the St. Louis County club will be held at Virginia this evening. This is the county commercial club and a delegation from Duluth will go to Virginia today to attend.

Is Arrested Again.

Madam Mary Gain is again under arrest on a charge preferred by Chief Troyer of running a disorderly house. It has not been more than two weeks since she was found guilty on a similar charge.

A Busy Day.

The Gidding store certainly had a busy day yesterday. The Rebuilding Sale which started yesterday morning offers most unusual garment values for mid-April and