Charcoal Lozenges

Powerful Absorbents

Offensive Breath and Stomach Gases Cannot Exist When They Are Used.

Charcoal, by virtue of its porous nature, takes up gases mechanically just as a sponge takes up water. Its capacity in this respect is in proportion to the number and fineness of its pores. Charcoal made from poplar, beechwood, vegetable ivory, cocoa-nut shells and willow-wood, is a compact, heavy substance, having a metallic luster, the pores being quite invisible.

Chemical tests of various kinds performed by expert chemists have revealed the fact that charcoal made from willow wood, is not only absolutely harmless, but that it is by far the most powerful absorbent of all kinds of gases. Certain other woods, mentioned above, are used by some manufacturers in making charcoal, and besides not being half as effective in absorbing stomach gases, have also been found to be positively harmful to the digestive system.

Willow-wood charcoal is, then, the very best for the purpose of absorbing excessive gas of the stomach, removing intestinal flatus, and purifying foul breath. Charcoal to be effective against gastric flatulence must be introduced among the gases of the stomach in the same state as when fresh from the crucible. The means of effecting this is to compress them into soluble lozenges, so that after being dissolved in the mouth and swallowed, the charcoal is "set free," and at once begins its work of oxidizing and absorbing foul gases, and also, through its antiseptic properties, of purifying the entire alimentary tract.

It is definitely known that the absorbent and cleansing action of charcoal is protracted and continued through the intestinal system as well as in the stomach, and it proves beneficial there also.

In STUART'S CHARCOAL LOZENGES we have a gas-absorbing remedy which readily takes precedence over all others. The charcoal used in them is the very best that can be obtained. They are composed of the finest young willow-wood, converted into charcoal by the special, carbonizing Stuart Process, and before being compressed into Lozenges, the powdered charcoal is rendered sweet and thoroughly agreeable to the taste by being mixed with pure honey, and the result is a product equally as palatable as candy.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges have attained a wide popularity among the people, millions of boxes being sold every year. They have, over and over again proven their efficiency as rapid and powerful absorbents of foul stomach-gases, relieving and curing flatulence, belching, or the eructation of gases, and finally in the purification of offensive breath.

Buy a package of these little lozenges from your druggist, and forward us your name and address for free sample package. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
