Meeting of the Evening Shakespeare class of the Twentieth Century club at 7:45 o'clock, in the club room of the library.
First lecture at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall of the high school in the series to be given by William Norman Guthrie.
TUESDAY—President's reception of Twentieth Century club in the assembly hall of the Young Women's Christian association.
Bishop's club social.
WEDNESDAY—Second lecture by Dr. Guthrie at 8 p. m.
THURSDAY—First meeting of the year of the Cecilia society at the home of Mrs. L. M. Beckwith of 1815 East Fifth street.
FRIDAY—Third lecture by Dr. Guthrie.
SATURDAY—Regular meeting of Saturday club.

The club season now beginning, will help to brighten up the social world and pave the way for winter gaieties. The month of September has seldom been so dull as it was this year, for with the exception of three weddings and the attendant pre-nuptial entertainments, there has been no social activity. Meetings connected with two charities, the Needlework Guild and the Children's Home called out most of the prominent women on Wednesday and Friday, respectively. Golfing continues at the Country club. Mrs. Morton Miller won the prize at the women's tournament. One of Mrs. Stephen H. Jones' cups will be put up this week.

The most important affair of this week will be the annual reception to the president of the Twentieth Century club, which will be held Tuesday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A.
The Bishop's club, the second most important women's organization in Duluth, will hold its opening social Tuesday evening.
The first meeting of the Matinee Musicale will be held on Monday, and the first meeting of the Cecilia society on Thursday.

ris' attire. She carried a white prayer book.
Miss Eleanor Whidden of Boston, maid of honor, was gowned in yellow chiffon and the bridesmaids, Miss Frances Swift, Miss Rachel St. Clair, Miss Mary Paine and Miss Helen Ostrom were gowned in white chiffon.

Charles D. Brewer was groomsman, and the ushers were Charles Morris, brother of the bride, Chester Whyte, Paul Welch, C. J. McBride and Harvey Clapp.

Mrs. Henry K. Brearley played a romanza by Schuman, Gullmann's Grand Chorus in Dr. Schumann's "Message," also his "Cradle Song," and a lullaby by Brahms. On the entrance of the bridal party she played the wedding march from Lohengrin, and at the close of the ceremony Beethoven's wedding march.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Page Morris, 2232 East First street. Over 100 guests called to offer congratulations.

The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Warren E. Greene, Mrs. J. D. Morrison, Mrs. A. D. Thomson, Mrs. Howard T. Abbott, Mrs. George D. Swift, Mrs. Carroll Graff and Mrs. Daniel Andrews.

Miss Gertrude Rakowsky, of 18 Fourth avenue east, daughter of J. G. Rakowsky, was married last Sunday in Oakland, Cal., to Alfred Byron Stiner, a life insurance man of that city. Miss Rakowsky was a well known and popular Duluth girl, and a graduate of the Central high school. She was born in this city, and is a sister of Mrs. T. J. Little, G. A. Charles and Victor Rakowsky. The wedding in Oakland took place in the Congregational church of that city.

Miss Catherine McKenzie of Cleveland, Ohio, and Frank J. Winters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters, formerly of this city, were married in Cleveland Wednesday of this week. The ceremony took place at the chapel of Trinity cathedral there, and the service was read by Rev. Mr. Clarke. Mr. Winters and his bride left for an eastern wedding trip, and after Oct. 15 they will be at home in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Wage of Granton, Wis., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jennie Foster Wage to Norman Jesse Pearce of this city. The wedding took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce are both well known in Duluth and they will be at home after Nov. 15 at 14 East Fifth street.

ENGAGEMENTS

At a luncheon given yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lovett, 1732 East Third street, at which Mrs. Lovett and Mrs. Heimbach were hostesses a double engagement was announced. Mr. and Mrs. William P. Heimbach announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gladys Heimbach to Henry Carl Dankroeger of Deerwood, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lovett announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Roella Lovett to Hugh Robert Burge of this city.

Mrs. Albert Lawton of St. Paul announces the engagement of her daughter Winnifred to William Johnson of this city.

Fortus C. Deming of Minneapolis announces the engagement of his daughter, Portia, to Dr. Dinbar F. Lippit of West Duluth.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The members of the First Baptist church held their first annual autumn social Tuesday evening in the church parlors, at Ninth avenue east and First street. The color scheme was yellow and red, and carried out in mountain ash berries, dried wheat, golden glow and sunflowers. Upwards of 200 persons were present and a musical program was provided.
Royal G. Wilson sang, "The Postilion," and Mrs. Mark Baldwin rendered two solos, "In a Garden," and "Just a Lily." Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morton sang a tenor and contralto duet, "Adieux of Summer Evenings."
Dexter Oetgerren played a violin solo, "Hungarian Rhapsody." (Hausser.) Miss Dorothy Patton gave a reading, "The Lie," and Miss Edith May Long recited "The Angelus." Light refreshments were served.

Miss Lena Azine, 311 East First street, was surprised by her friends Monday evening. Games and music were the features of entertainment. Those present were Miss Esther Shapiro, Miss Sarah D. Salnovitz, Miss Ada Cohen, Miss Edith Azine, Miss Bessie Canfield, Miss Sarah Casmir, Miss Rose Silk, Miss Lena Finkelstein, Miss Sophie Caplov, Miss Fannie Aitman, Miss Eva Oreckovsky, Miss Bessie Rocklin, Miss Minnie Light, Miss Eva Sospovsky, Emil Nusbaum, P. Averbrook, Irwin Oreck, B. Azine, Louis Goldsberg, Samuel Cohen, Charles Harris, S. Feldman, Sam Abrahamson, B. Stern, Charles Nattleson.

The "My Soul" club will entertain at a dancing party Tuesday, Oct. 5 at the Maccabee hall. The hall will be decorated with pennants and the invitations are similar to the decorations. The music will be by Elyett's orchestra. Mrs. W. H. Maycroft and Mrs. H. B. Whittier will chaperone the party and the entertainment committee consists of Miss Caroline Peterson and Miss Laura Gates.

Seventy-five women attended the meeting of the Duluth branch of the Needlework guild held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Marshall, Twenty-sixth avenue east and Branch street. Mrs. Morton Miller, president of the branch, assisted. Miss Jean Poirier gave a talk on charity work which drew tears from the eyes of her hearers. Mrs. D. S. Forgy also spoke of the need of charity in her work with the various charitable institutions of the city. General plans were discussed for the coming year. Light refreshments were served.

A social and concert was held Wednesday evening at the Swedish Lutheran church, Sixth avenue east and Third street. The singing of Miss Laurette Riets was heard with enthusiasm. Miss Riets' song was a selection by Guy d'Hardelot entitled "I Know a Lovely Garden." She responded to an encore. Several airs were sung by a number of girls dressed in Swedish national costume. The accompanist was Theodore Fosun.

Miss Essie Conklin, 227 Eleventh avenue east, entertained at a party Wednesday evening at her home in honor of her birthday. The house was attractively decorated and lunch was served. Those present were Miss Hazel Fischer, Miss Austria Larson, Miss Elizabeth Donovan, Miss Alice Larson, Miss Mollie Block, Miss McInnis, Miss Arzie Conklin, Miss Irene Kelleher, Miss Anna Purdy, Miss Freda Sandstedt and Miss A. Quinn and Miss Lottie Crowley were the assisting hostesses. Five hundred was played at five tables, the favors, hand painted china plates, going to Mrs. Armstead, Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Philbin. Besides those mentioned the guests were: Mrs. D. M. Philbin, Mrs. W. R. Philbin, Mrs. McFarlane, Mrs. J. Armstead, Mrs. J. Dunphy, Mrs. Oredson, Mrs. Hilliard, Mrs. G. Watson, Mrs. R. J. Baldwin, Mrs. Botsford, Mrs. F. Swanstrom, A. Ouellette, O. Wennerlund, C. B. Green, J. Crawford, J. Linglbach, J. Manson, W. Wright, F. Berry.

The parlor decorations were sweet peas. Nasturtiums were used in the dining room and in the living rooms. Pink and white astors were in abundance.

The Spirit Lake branch of the boat club will be closed after next Tuesday. This news will cause much regret among those who have frequented the club house during the season. The last formal dinner will be served Tuesday evening and after that no formal cafe service will be maintained, although the house will be open all fall and winter. Over 100 guests are expected there today, and a special dinner will be served. A large number of people have camped there all summer, about a dozen tents and four or five cottages being still occupied. The attractions offered there now are boating, tennis, shooting and fishing.

An informal dancing party was given last Wednesday at the main house of the boat club and a similar one will be held next Wednesday. As the regular dances have been concluded this affair will be by subscription.

Miss Mayme Shannon entertained several of her friends Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Leo La Bonte, who was formerly Miss Leda Pomerville of this city. WOMEN'S CLUBS

The annual business meeting of the Twentieth Century club, preliminary to the year's work, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday in the Y. W. C. A. At 2:15 there will be a meeting of the executive board. At 3 the reception to the president, Mrs. J. D. Morrison, will be held with Dr. William Norman Guthrie as guest of honor. A large attendance is anticipated as the reception is open to the 300 members and their friends and it is especially desired that as many men as possible be present to greet Dr. Guthrie. The membership committee of the club will be in attendance and receive applications for membership. Mrs. Michael Kelley, chairman of the social committee, has charge of the arrangements. The following musical program will be given: Soprano solo—"Where'll You Walk" Handel. Miss Alice Sjoselius. Violin solo—"Allegro Maestoso" De Beriot Charles D. Oestergren. Soprano solo—"One Morning, Oh So Early" Miss Alice Sjoselius. Accompanist, Mrs. K. A. Oestergren. The attractions of the Twentieth Century club are many, for in addition to the usual classes in the different departments the lecture committee has provided for a course of 14 lectures, six of which will be given by Henry F. Greene. They will be historical and are intended as the beginning of a regular course in history, which, if sufficient encouragement be given them this winter, will be continued in the coming years, commencing with the beginning of scriptural history, and coming down to the present day. There will likewise be three lectures by Mrs. Frances Squire Potter of the University of Minnesota, three by Mrs. Robert Morris Seymour, one by Bishop J. D. Morrison on "The Dawn of Life Upon Earth," and one by Prof. L. W. Kline. Federation day with the Saturday club will be held Saturday, Oct. 9, instead of Oct. 16, as originally intended. A cordial invitation is extended to the officers and members of all clubs in the city to be present. Reports of the state convention will be read by Mrs. J. L. Washburn, Mrs. F. L. Barrows, Mrs. A. H. Brocklehurst, Mrs. W. J. Stevenson and Mrs. A. H. Williams. The proceeding will be held at 3 o'clock in the library club room. A social hour will follow the regular meeting, and an informal program will be prepared by Mrs. W. G. La Rue, Mrs. M. H. Kelley, Miss Jessie Maynard, and Mrs. E. W. Kaltenbach. Mrs. O. A. Oredson has been elected recording secretary of the Saturday club, to succeed Mrs. C. E. Spring who resigned. Mrs. W. G. La Rue has been appointed to the position of corresponding secretary, succeeding Mrs. Julia Barnes, who will winter in the East. The Bishop's club will hold its opening meeting Tuesday evening in the rooms on West Fourth street. The affair will be in the nature of a social. Bishop McGolrick will outline the work for the year. The subject will be "Italy." Horace Reyzner will speak on Italian music and a short musical program will be given. The evening Shakespeare class of the Twentieth Century club will hold its first meeting for the year at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow in the club room of the library. The play to be studied is Othello. L. A. LaVole will lead. All interested are invited to attend. The Ionic Social club held its first meeting of the year, Friday evening at the Masonic temple. The following officers were elected: H. R. Burgo, president; W. A. Abbott, first vice president; W. A. McDonald, second vice president; A. L. Kreitter, secretary; C. C. Colton, treasurer.
